

Descendants of Samuel Gladney

Generation No. 1

1. Samuel⁴ Gladney (Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 1737 in Kinbally, Skerry Parish, County Antrim, Ireland, and died 24 Oct 1799 in Winnsboro, Fairfield County SC. He married Agnes McCreight 1760 in Ireland, daughter of William McCreight and Agnes Smyth. She was born 1745 in Ireland, and died Aft. 1840 in Fairfield County SC.

Notes for Samuel Gladney:

Samuel, oldest son of the widow Jane Wilson Gladney, was thirty years old at the time he left Ireland. He married Agnes McCreight in 1760, the daughter of William and Agnes Smith McCreight. Their first son, Patrick, was six years old; Mary, their daughter, was four; and the second son, Samuel, Jr., was an infant on their arrival. The ship on which they entered Charleston Harbor carried many other immigrants. There was a large contingent of Wilsons who may have been relatives of Jane Wilson Gladney.

The survey of land granted to Samuel and his family was completed and certified in the Surveyor-General's office by March of 1768. They were free to take possession of this tract in Craven (Fairfield) County. The trail wound across the sandy coastal lands where creeks were full from spring rains, and higher into the rolling hills of the "Up-Country." They must have traveled those forest paths through the brisk days of early spring. Flowers strange to them bloomed beneath the trees, and pine needles cushioned their steps as they walked beside the wagons. Before they reached their destination they saw dogwood blossoms spreading a cloud cover throughout the forest, and the song of colorful birds ceased only with darkness. The journey required three to four weeks.

One of the new settlers wrote back to Ireland that a hunter could make a good living from deer skins and hams. People in Charleston were eager for them, and they could be exchanged advantageously for powder, lead, and other necessities. Products had to be transported to the port for a market, however, and the journey was arduous, sometimes dangerous. Streams were full of fish. With the long, warm summer months before them, the Gladney family, no doubt, lived off products found there while their house was being built and the clearing begun on their acres. Skilled workmen were available at times, but neighbors worked together to erect simple houses from logs hand hewn off their land. The meetinghouse came next.

In 1774, about six years after Samuel and Agnes had claimed their land, several of Agnes' brothers and sisters arrived with their families. Arriving also was William McCreight, an expert cabinetmaker. He settled in the Winnsboro area where a town was being laid out from the grants belonging to John and Richard Winn who had received the land much earlier. McCreight built his home on a tract acquired in 1774. The house is still standing and has the distinction of being the first frame structure in Fairfield County. Framework, walls, and floors are hand-hewn, hand-planed heart-of-pine boards, mostly pegged together. It is considered a good example of later houses built by the settlers. It stands three stories high with two rooms on each floor.

William McCreight became one of the first occupants of the town of Winnsboro after it was organized, he ordered and oversaw the installation of a town clock in the tower of the Town Hall. The works of the clock were brought from France in 1837. Many tales are told in that area about the prodigious labor connected with hauling them overland to Winnsboro.

Among immigrants coming to the colony under the Act of 1761 were skilled workmen in several classifications. James Elliott was a skilled silversmith of this period. His wares in silver and pewter are highly prized antiques today by descendants of original settlers in Fairfield County. James Russell was a master mason. Robert Martin was a wheelwright and blacksmith. These men doubled in other capacities, some teaching in the school, some acting as ministers in the meetinghouses of the area; but always making a living from the land they lived on.

Five of Samuel's children were born in America. Joseph, James, Thomas, Richard, and Hugh. Samuel, Jr. died 1786 at the age of 15. There seems to be no record of what became of Samuel's daughter, Mary. In those days it was easy to lose a daughter from the records, unless family Bibles were treasured and passed from generation to generation. Elderly members of the family confess that "they heard she married a Cherry or a Chestnut, and moved to York County, up near the North Carolina border." James left Fairfield County in 1823 for Tennessee where he settled at Medon. Richard married a girl from the County and lived out his life there. Hugh died a bachelor, leaving to nieces and nephews generous bequests at his death. Patrick, too, lived in the County.

During the Revolutionary War, Samuel served with the colonies. When Cornwallis took Winnsboro, 1781, for his headquarters and sent out raiding parties to wipe out resistance, Samuel fought with the Militia, Col Richard Winn's Reg., Capt Edward Martin's Company. His war record is found in Book U-W page 243, #331, Stub, Entries to Indents for Revolutionary Claims by A. S. Salley, Jr., Secretary to the Historical Comm. of S. C. "To 40 days duty on horseback in Capt. Edward Martin's Co., Col. Richard Winn's Regiment, commencing 16th day Oct. and ending 24th Nov. 1781. March 20th, 1781 To hire of 3 horses impressed into service and returned June 1st, 1781 being 73 days each. To 2 beef cattle supplied Co. Winn's Regiment."

Samuel wrote his will, 23 October 1799. It is filed in Fairfield County Wills, Apt. 3, File 105, State Archives of South Carolina. The following is a copy of said will. (Title: Will of Samuel Gladen)

And it is my Will and desire that the different legacies already mentioned be paid by my two sons, Richard and Hugh, and to enable them for so doing they are to have and enjoy all and every part of my goods and cattles not already willed away for their benefit and use, likewise all debts due me by any person or persons whatsoever to me indebted, be paid to my said two sons, Richard and Hugh.

And, lastly, I do nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Agnes, and my son, Richard, to be my true and lawful executors, to see this my last Will and Testament executed and it is my desire that James Phillips be aiding and assisting them in the Execution of said Executorship by his Council and Advise when they may think proper at any time to sell for said assistance.

And further I do hereby declare this to be my last Will and Testament, revoking and disannulling all former Will or Wills by me hereto fore made whatsoever. Witness my hand and seal this the 23rd day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine and of American Independence the Twenty-third.

Samuel had fought for that independence. To him it was second only to the "Year of Our Lord." In the most formal and solemn document that he was ever to write he paid tribute to that independence and placed it in perspective for future generations of his children.

Samuel was buried in the Gladney Cemetery, on an original grant of Gladney land. If Agnes, his wife is buried there, stone or marker has been destroyed. Later her sons Richard and Hugh were interred there.

Birth year may have been 1730.

Served as private in War of American Revolution.

7. Thomas⁵ Gladney (Samuel⁴, Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 1774 in Fairfield County SC, and died 1825 in Henry County GA. He married Rachel Creighton Abt. 1793 in Unknown, daughter of ??? Creighton and ???. She was born Abt. 1765 in Ireland, and died Aft. 1860 in Henry County GA.

Notes for Thomas Gladney:

It is probable that Thomas, fourth son of Samuel, was the first of Samuel's sons to set forth into the new lands, in Georgia. He had married young, and his two oldest sons, Samuel (vet. of the War of 1812), and William had their own homes by 1819. Mary Ann, the daughter, married in 1822, Forqus Russell whose relatives were also interested in the new lands. James, the third son of this family, had just come of age; later he married in Fairfield County and remained there as a citizen. John was still a minor. New Georgia lands were opened in 1821 by treaties with the Indians, and the great Land Lotteries were beginning. Citizens of Georgia were eligible for the drawings. A great many of these lots were drawn by citizens of other counties in Georgia who had no intention of moving into the recently acquired area. Their warrants were for sale, as also were some at the site of the land. The two older sons of Thomas, Samuel and William, bought land in the newly created Henry County, comprising about seven of the present day counties, in 1824-25, and the deeds were recorded 1825, Henry Co. Deed Books C and D. John, the youngest son of Thomas, was represented in the purchase of land in 1831, recorded, December 1831, Vol. F. Henry Co. Deed Book.

When the first U.S. Census of the new area was made in 1830, only heads of household were enumerated by name. Rachel Gladney, whose age corresponds to that of Thomas's wife, is found as head of the household in Militia District 6ll, Henry County. Thomas, therefore, must have bought land between 1821 and 1830. Later, when the estate of this couple was finally settled in South Carolina in 1852, it was administered as belonging to Thomas Gladney "late of the State of Georgia."

These facts indicate that Thomas went to Henry County early after the opening of the Indian lands in 1821; that he died before 1830; and that the estate was not administered until Rachel's death. In the 1840 U.S. Census, Henry County, John was head of the household, but Rachel was represented in the age group. In 1850, she was enumerated by name as 82 years of age, in the household of John Gladney.

Samuel and William the older sons of Thomas and Rachel Gladney, did not remain long with others in Henry County. Samuel moved on into Meriwether County and was enumerated there in the 1830 U. S. Census. While he was a citizen at that place, he drew a Land Lot in the 1832 Gold Lottery, consisting of 40 acres. It is possible this was located in Carroll County, scene of the State's first gold rush in 1826. Carroll County mines were worked at a profit until the Civil War. Samuel and William, however, were not ready to stay. In 1838 both families with some of their children now old enough to be married, moved to Randolph County AL. They were enumerated there in the U.S. Census of the County 1850. They were farmers, merchants, millers, teachers, and later ministers and physicians. Their sons fought in the Civil War, and two of them were killed in action. The red soil of the North Alabama hills was the final resting-place of both brothers. Old cemeteries near Wedowee have Gladney graves, and Bacon Level Cemetery near Roanoke, Alabama contains numerous Gladney graves.

Notes for Rachel Creighton:

Rachel is listed at the age of 95, in 1860 Census of Carroll County GA, page 408, house 101, lists "Rachel Gladney, age 95, born in Ireland" as living in the household of John Gladney, her youngest son and his family. Also in the 1850 census, listed as 82, in the same home.

Brice Aft. 1835. She was born Unknown, and died Aft. 08 May 1843.

She was born 12 Nov 1807 in Crab Orchard, Cumberland County TN, and died 17 Jul 1877 in Columbia County AR.

Notes for Col. Samuel L. Gladney:

Three of Samuel's sons were wounded at Vicksburg. Black Yankee soldiers bayoneted these wounded soldiers in their beds in the hospital (supposedly on orders of Grant, but nothing can be found of these orders). Col. Sam had sent his manservant (slave) to the hospital to care for them when they were wounded. The slave hurried to him and told him of the murders and then they both went to bury the Gladney boys. Late in the night the slave crept into the Yankee quarters and killed the soldiers responsible for the deaths of the Gladney boys. Col. Sam rewarded the slave by educating him and his descendants and they became very prominent citizens of the community and are still today.

30. William⁶ Gladney (Thomas⁵, Samuel⁴, Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 1797 in Fairfield County SC, and died Aft. 1850 in Randolph County AL. He married Sarah Young 1817 in Fairfield County SC, daughter of William Young and Mary Henderson. She was born 1798, and died Aft. 1836 in Randolph County AL.

Notes for William Gladney:

It was difficult to establish connection between William and some of the younger Gladney families enumerated in the 1850 U. S. Census of Randolph County. Mrs. Gladys Gladney Appleby, Maryville TN, grew up in that county. She had her father's Bible record, and could remember that her grandmother had been a Young. By continued questioning of her relatives over a two-year period, she succeeded in finding one cousin who supplied the missing link. She contributed her findings to this collection. She is a descendant of William and Sarah Young Gladney. No record later than the 1870 U.S. Census enumeration in Randolph County has been found for Samuel and Mary Young Gladney's family.

Notes for Mary Anne Gladney:

The household of Mary Anne Gladney Russell and Forigus Russell was enumerated in this general area of Henry County also. By 1850 Mary Anne and Forigus Russell had made one migration to Rusk County, Texas, and returned to Henry County. Forigus helped to settle the estate of his father, in an agreement between the heirs and the widow, Mary McDowell Russell, whereby Mary should pay the outstanding debts of the deceased and should be given the home place of 100 acres, with the right to will it as she chose at her death. The agreement was signed by all the heirs and recorded August 21, 1854, Henry Co. Deeds, Vol. N. Forigus and Mary Anne Russell with their families returned to Texas in 1858, and remained there. Descendants of this couple still live at Henderson, and other east Texas towns. Miss Robbie Dell Russell was a teacher in the Junior High school at Henderson. She was interested in genealogy, and has contributed material for this record.

Notes for Unnamed Russell, (twin):

This unnamed twin is buried in a small cemetery near Timber Ridge Presbyterian Church. His grave was next to his grandparents, Thomas and Mary McDowell Russell. After we visited this cemetery back in the 1940's some one bought this land, cleared it - he completely destroyed the markers. Cousin Eulee Russell, a third cousin of Robert F. Russell, had new markers put at the graves of Mary and Thomas Russell. We have not been in this cemetery since the death of cousin Eulee. I believe he had a fence put around the plot. We don't know the condition of the cemetery now. (The above was written by Robbie Dell Russell, Nov 2001)

Notes for Hutchinson Rogers Russell:

Mack (Sloan McDowell Russell) and Uncle Bud (Hutchinson Rogers Russell) were stationed in Mansfield, La. shortly before the battle was fought. One of them, I can't remember which, came home on furlough and missed the actual battle of Mansfield. It was a win for the South. The North had machinery that they had hoped to get into Texas and cut the wheat fields. The Federal prisoners were sent to Tyler TX. The people of East Texas could hear the guns and cannons being fired. (The above was written by Robbie Dell Russell, Nov 2001)

She was born 03 Dec 1804 in Fairfield County SC, and died Aft. 1870 in Unknown.

Notes for John A. Gladney:

John, the youngest son of Thomas and Rachel Creighton Gladney, with whom his mother lived until her death, left Henry County GA in the late 1850's. His family moved to Carroll County, and was enumerated there in the 1860 U.S. Census. Mr. Robert Lee Gladney, grandson of John, a remarkable man of 92 who died in 1964, said he believed the move was because his grandmother's sister, Susannah Russell Young, wife of Thomas Young, was moving to the district around La Grange GA, and the families did not wish to be separated. He could remember visiting back and forth with cousins, and commented particularly on the deep affection existing between the adults of the family.

41. Jane⁶ Gladney (Richard⁵, Samuel⁴, Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 17 Mar 1822 in Fairfield County SC, and died 01 Feb 1904 in Bradley County AR. She married (1) Silas Gibson Abt. 1840 in Winnsboro, Fairfield County SC. He was born Abt. 1810, and died 11 May 1853 in Fairfield County SC. She married (2) Ralph T. Gibson Unknown. He was born 1823, and died 1873.

Notes for Jane Gladney:

Jane Gladney was the fourth daughter and the eighth child of Richard and Mary Martha Bruce Gladney, she was born 17 March 1822 in Fairfield District, South Carolina.

Like her sisters before her, Jane must have had the daily life of a farmer's daughter in the eighteen hundreds; cooking, sewing, tilling the land, and most likely some time for home tutoring in the three "R's". She would have a close association with her relatives living on the Gladney land grant properties on Jackson Creek. She must have been prepared well to face her problems, as she faced many obstacles early in her life and lived to outlive her entire Gladney Family. However, we must take into consideration the influenza epidemic of 1835 in Fairfield County, that took her mother, brothers; Samuel M. and Hugh S., and her sister Martha Felders, who was only 11. Her father and brother Edward Bruce both died in 1843. Brother Richard Jackson, who also came to Arkansas, died in Pine Bluff in 1894. Both sister, Rachel Gladney Reap (AR) and brother, William McMilling (TN) died in 1899, just 5 years before she died.

Jane was 13 when her mother passed away with the influenza and 19 when her first son, Samuel Bruce was born. One tradition states she named him for her mother's brother, Samuel Bruce, an English minister. Another tradition combines her Grandfather Samuel Gladney and her mother's maiden name Bruce. We may find someday which tradition applies. Jane was 21 when she lost her father, and had been married about three years to Silas Gibson. She was 31 years when she became a widow with three children to raise, which is no easy task, and must have been quite difficult in her time.

Jane lost her fourth child in 1850 in Fairfield County SC, a son who lived only three hours. He is buried in the Jackson Creek Presbyterian Cemetery as "infant of Silas and Jane Gibson". Her brother's Samuel M. and Edward Bruce, along with their wives are buried there also.

In 1853 Jane lost her husband Silas Gibson, age 43, from a sickness that confined him to his bed and house according to his Will. He wished to be buried in the Methodist Church Cemetery in downtown Winnsboro SC. Samuel Bruce was 12 years old when his Father died and 13 when they immigrated to Drew County AR in the covered wagon group which included his aunts, uncles and cousins.

At the death of her father, Jane was given two slaves, Moses and Kate. At the death of her husband she was given guardianship of the slave Lewis, until Samuel Bruce became of age. Her uncle, Hugh Gladney, willed her $1,000.00 at his death in 1854. Jane acquired land in Arkansas and with son Hugh Gladney Gibson, farmed her land until her death in 1904.

The Gladney girls, brother Richard Jackson and their families came to Cleveland, Drew, Franklin, and Lincoln Counties in Arkansas in covered wagons after harvesting their crops in Fairfield District, South Carolina. They worked their lands, reared their families, faced the problems of daily life, mourned the loss of young children, and then endured the very uncivil "Civil War."

He married Sarah M. Harden Jun 1853 in Winnsboro, Fairfield County SC, daughter of Silas Harden and Elizabeth Swan. She was born 12 Feb 1818 in SC, and died 23 May 1900 in Jefferson County AR.

Notes for Richard Jackson Gladney:

A gallant soldier of two wars has fought his last, the battle of life, and now rests under the sod in the State of Arkansas. Mr. R. Jackson Gladney passed away at his home in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, on the 17th of December, 1894.

He was a native of Fairfield County and moved to Arkansas several years ago. Mr. Gladney was a member of the old Palmetto Regiment, Company G, and was one of the first men of that regiment that mounted the walls in Mexico. He received two wounds in the storming of the city of Mexico, and held a silver medal with the names "Butler, Dickinson and Gladden," as a certificate of membership, the names of the three generals engraved on it. As the Mexican army was about to charge out of the gates of the wall, orders were given, "Shoot down that officer." Mr. Gladney, then a mere beardless boy, raised his gun and fired, killing the horse, thereby producing confusion and disorder, and the Palmetto Regiment went forward, and he was the first man over the wall.

In the War Between the States he fought under Gen. Hampton and Gen. M. C. Butler during the entire conflict. He was a member of Company F, 6th South Carolina Cavalry. At the time of his death he was 68 years old. His wife accompanied him to Arkansas, and the only member of his family in this State at present is Mr. J. S. Gladney, who now resides in Lancaster.

Winnsboro SC. The News and Herald extends sympathy to the bereaved family in their loss.

In January of 1848, some McCreight cousins were writing back and forth between Winnsboro, SC and Portersville, TN concerning what was happening to their loved ones in the Mexican War campaigns. In the middle of this letter, written 16 Jan 1848, was a comment about a heroic Gladney. It went as follows - written here literally except explanatory brackets.

"Jackson Gladney and William Clark's daughter was engaged to be married he Volunteered (for the Mexican War) when he went away he gave her his gold watch she died with fever five or six weeks ago. (first 2 weeks of Dec 1847) I think he will feel bad (when he gets the news) I don't think he will come back when he hears of it. They say he makes a fine soldier he was the first man over the wall of the City (Battle of Mexico City) he has never been sick a day since he left.

Capt. Clark's body is coming on (no explanation) everybody felt his death. William Clark died yesterday of dropsy.

Well girls, they have such a fine preacher at Jackson Creek and Gladneys."

Notes for Edna Browning Kahly:

Child-welfare advocate, daughter of Maurice and Minnie Nell (Jones) Kahly, was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on January 22, 1886. In 1903, after her husband died, Minnie Kahly moved the family to Fort Worth, Texas, because of Edna's ill health. In 1906 Edna married Sam Gladney in Gainesville. After a few months in Havana, Cuba, they moved to Wolfe City and bought a mill there. While her husband concentrated on building his Gladney Milling Company, which manufactured Gladiola brand flour, Edna Gladney started a crusade to clean up the Grayson County poor farm. Especially distressed at the treatment of children at the institution, she arranged to have the youngsters transferred to the Rev. I. Z. T. Morris Children's Home and Aid Society in Fort Worth. By 1910 she had joined the society's board of directors and had dedicated herself to caring for homeless and underprivileged children. After a trip to New York and Chicago to study settlement work and child welfare, Mrs. Gladney established a free day nursery in Sherman for the children of poor working families. She financed the nursery from her own pocket and from donations to collection boxes that she placed in local businesses.

After Sam Gladney's prosperous business failed, the couple moved to Fort Worth in 1924, and while her husband rebuilt his fortunes Edna Gladney devoted her time to the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society. By 1927 she had been named superintendent. Childless, herself, and widowed in 1935, Mrs. Gladney made the welfare of unwanted children the center of her life. She continued Morris original work of placing abandoned children with adoptive families and expanded the society's activities to focus strongly on the care of unmarried mothers and an adoption service for their babies. She successfully lobbied the Texas legislature to have the word illegitimate kept off birth certificates and urged the passage of legislation to give adopted children the same inheritance rights as other children. As a result of her efforts the state of Texas instituted the policy of issuing second birth certificates in the names of adoptive parents.

Edna Gladney acquired a national reputation for her work after the release of the 1941 film Blossoms in the Dust, a fictionalized account of her life, starring Greer Garson. In 1950, after acquiring the West Texas Maternity Hospital, which it had operated since 1948, the society changed its name to Edna Gladney Home. Mrs. Gladney was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree by Texas Christian University in 1957. She placed over 10,000 babies with adoptive parents during her career, and she continued to direct the home until ill health forced her into semi retirement in 1960. She remained active as an advisor and reviewed plans for a new nursery and additional dormitory only a few days before her death. She died on October 2, 1961, in Fort Worth and was buried in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Her best friend committed suicide when her fiancé's family objected to the fact she was "illegitimate." Edna married Sam Gladney and moved to Sherman where they started their first day nursery for poor mill children (1909-1918). After their move to Fort Worth (and his death), she ran Texas Children's Home (later Edna Gladney Home), Texas' first child-placing agency (1925-1960). Her lobbying forced Texas legislature to pass laws erasing word "illegitimate" from birth certificates and giving adopted children the same inheritance rights as natural children. Her life featured in Metro Goldwyn Mayer film Blossoms in the Dust, starring Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Felix Bressart, Marsha Hunt, Fay Holden & Samuel S. Hinds. Directed by Mervyn LeRoy. Focuses on a Texas heroine, whose tireless efforts brought hope, dignity & homes to thousands of unwanted infants (1941).

DEATH TAKES MRS. GLADNEY, WHOSE LIFE INSPIRED MOVIE

Mrs. Edna Gladney, widely known for her work in caring for unwed mothers and homeless children, died Monday at the age of 75 after a year's illness.

She was a retired superintendent of a Fort Worth home for unwed mothers which bears her name. It was founded in 1887 for the care of homeless children. The name was changed in honor of Mrs. Gladney in 1948.

Mrs. Gladney became director in 1924.

More than 10,000 children have been cared for at the home.

In recent years, the home cared only for unwed mothers, placing their children for adoption.

Mrs. Gladney's work with children inspired the 1941 movie, "Blossoms in the Dust," which was hailed as one of the year's 10 best movies.

Mrs. Gladney moved to Sherman with her late husband from Milwaukee, Wis., in 1909. He established the Gladiola Flour Mill there.

In Sherman, she was known as the woman who cleaned up the poor farm and who started the city's first day nursery. The nursery still is operated by the city there.

The Gladneys, unable to have children of their own, became foster mother and father to every lonely, unwanted, or neglected child who came within a wide radius of their lives.

They moved to Fort Worth in 1918 after Mr. Gladney suffered financial reverses.

It was a Hollywood writer, Ralph Wheelwright, who suggested that the story of Mrs. Gladney's life be made into a movie. Wheelwright had adopted a girl from the Gladney home.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer bought the story for $5,000 and pulled all stops in producing a major picture, which had its New York premier in June, 1941.

Greer Garson played Mrs. Gladney in the movie, and Walter Pidgeon portrayed her husband, who died in 1935. (Copied from an article dated Oct. 3, 1961 with a Fort Worth dateline)

Mack (Sloan McDowell Russell) and Uncle Bud (Hutchinson Rogers Russell) were stationed in Mansfield, La. shortly before the battle was fought. One of them, I can't remember which, came home on furlough and missed the actual battle of Mansfield. It was a win for the South. The North had machinery that they had hoped to get into Texas and cut the wheat fields. The Federal prisoners were sent to Tyler TX. The people of East Texas could hear the guns and cannons being fired. (The above was written by Robbie Dell Russell, Nov 2001)

158. Thomas (Jefferson?)⁷ Gladney (James⁶, Thomas⁵, Samuel⁴, Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 25 Nov 1827 in Fairfield County SC, and died 10 May 1883 in Oktibbeha County MS. He married Mary Celia Watt 1851, daughter of Charles Watt and Henrietta Martin. She was born 28 Jan 1833, and died 28 Sep 1882 in Starkville, Oktibbeha County MS.

Notes for Thomas (Jefferson?) Gladney:

Although James, son of Thomas Gladney and Rachel, remained in Fairfield County, James' enterprising young son, Thomas, who rode his way to Mississippi, was a very youthful overseer for William Bell in Oktibbeha County when he was enumerated there in the 1850 U.S. Census, at twenty-two years of age. The following year he married Mary Celia Watt, daughter of Charles M. Watt and Henrietta Wyatt Martin Watt. The census enumeration made at the end of the decade in 1860 found him with four children, real estate valued at $4,000, and personal property at $10,000.

Thomas lived about a mile north of Sessums MS in the Oktoc Community. His home was named "Red Acre." He belonged to that group of Presbyterians often called in those days "blue stocking" Presbyterians. The family attended the Vernon Cumberland (Seceder) Church in the community. Thomas and Mary Celia were the parents of ten children whose descendants live in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, Arkansas, and California. He was beginning to realize the benefits of planning and work on his plantation when the War Between the States swept across Mississippi. He enlisted July 1861 in Company "C", Oktibbeha Rescues, of the 14th Mississippi Regiment, but none of his sons were old enough to be involved.

This couple is buried in the old Associate Reformed Presbyterian Cemetery in Starkville MS. The church has given way to a modern service station, but an old iron fence encloses the cemetery. The location of this cemetery is Starkville, Oktibbeha County MS and is of the West side of Highway 25 between Highway 82 and College Drive.

Notes for Lula Adelle Gladney:

In writing of her Aunt Lula, Mrs. Margaret Holland reports: Aunt Lula attended a school in Troy MS, a very popular one of its day. I have a little friendship book that she kept when she attended that school, dated 1885. Many of her friends wrote in it. After she married Uncle Hamilton, they had a nice country home and farm which she managed while he was an engineer on the railroad, between Artesia and Starkville. Students at the A & M College all knew him since he passed the college daily. This couple didn't have any children, and Uncle Hamilton used to make friends with those along his route, especially needy youngsters in the cotton mill district. He would fix up surprise packages of food and clothing and things children like, and drop them to his friends as the engine went by. They befriended many a young person who was trying to get an education, too.

Notes for Samuel Bruce Gibson:

CSA Co. I 1st (Feagan-Colquitt) Inf AR Reg Pvt

War Between the States--Shot in leg, Chickamauga.

Enrolled for active duty at Monticello on 8 May 1861. Mustered into the Army of the Confederacy at Lynchburg Virginia on 19 May 1861 as Pvt Samuel Bruce Gibson. Captain Jackson's Company "I" (Feagan's-Colquitt's) Arkansas Volunteers- First Regiment in May and June of 1861, Saline County was stirring with activity. While a lot of the men were busy enlisting and drilling in the various military companies which were being formed, one company under Captain James F. Fagan had already left and was in Virginia as the First Arkansas Infantry Regiment. A Civil War document states, "an Arkansas unit is in Lynchburg armed and ready for action." Samuel Bruce and his Company were engaged in many of the bloody battles of the war. One document says Col. Fagan's regiment was encamped at Camp Jackson, upon the Potomac Coast, near Chopawamsic, to advance to Aquia Creek Batteries Virginia (important to the protection of Manassas Junction). On Wednesday the 18th of July two regiments including the 1st Arkansas was encamped near Brentsville, being on the offensive they were charged with the defense of Union Mills. They rested on Saturday. Another document states "along the Warrenton turnpike road to Bull Run- the first Ark Reg is near Camp Wigfall (along the stream to) Longstreet's position." He escaped injury until 1 July 1863 & 20 September 1863 at the Battle of Chickamauga (shot through the right knee). He was sent to the hospital; military records at the National Archives Wash. D. C. verify this. He was on furlow to South Carolina (no city or camp listed). In a letter from his Reep cousin, it states Samuel was furlowed to South Carolina and was in Fairfield County.

He had visited the Jackson Creek Property of the Gladneys. His uncles William McMilling and Richard Jackson Gladney were in Mobile Alabama in the CSA Army, but he visited with their families. The same cousin related that he had seen the son of Mary Gladney Mills, S. (Samuel?) Jackson Mills, during a battle. Mary & Samuel Mills had moved to Obion Tennessee. After duty as a train guard in Atlanta he was released from active field duty 23 April 1865. He returned to his mother Jane's place in Clear Creek Township Arkansas for 7 months before marrying Hulda Harper on 8 November 1865 in Cleveland County and establishing his home in Hurricane Township, Bradley County (now Cleveland County).

She married Michael Kangerga 1896, son of Stojan Kangerga and Helen Grozdanich. He was born 1873 in Otocac, Croatia, Austria Hungary, and died 1962 in Henderson, Rusk ounty TX.

Notes for Michael Kangerga:

M. KANGERGA'S LIFE FROM IMMIGRANT BOY TO MANSION

Michael Kangerga was born 1873 in Otocac, Croatia, a province of Austria-Hungary (now Yugoslavia), the son of Stojan (Stephen) Kangerga and Helen Grozdanich Kangerga.

His name was Mile' (pronounced Mee'lay or Mill'lay), the English translation of which is Michael. Kangerga was originally Kangrga, an E being added to make it more pronounceable in English.

He arrived in America at the age of 13, and came to Henderson, Texas, to live with an uncle, George Grozdanich, who owned a mercantile business in Henderson. His Uncle George sent him out during summer vacations to live with a family in the Brachfield Community of Rusk County, in which there were several young boys. Uncle George figured this would be the best way for young Michael to learn the language and customs. He was right!

Michael's astuteness in business and financial matters evidences itself rather early in life--when his Uncle George died on January 10, 1895, young Michael was already general manager of his Uncle's business. In his application to be appointed Temporary Administrator of the Estate, he alleges "...that a great number of persons are indebted to the said Grozdanich and that their debts are due and that this is the time of year to push collections...." He was then 22 years of age.

By 1885, his younger brother, Rade Kangerga, had come to America, and together they formed "M. KANGERGA & BRO.", a mercantile and financial institution still doing business today. The first transaction on record for M. Kangerga & Bro., was the purchase for $300 of 150 acres of land in the Maria Velarda Pena Survey, in Rusk County, on March 1, 1898, right in the middle of what was to become years later the great East Texas Oil Field. They never sold it.

(The story is told in the family that when Rade came over, he did not have a passport. But he DID have his graduation Certificate with his picture on it, and in his native language, of course. It LOOKED very official, and was never questioned!)

The firm of M. Kangerga & Bro. has had great impact upon the economy of this county. The land records are full of transactions in the name of M. Kangerga & Bro. With the small start provided by their merchant uncle, the mercantile establishment flourished many years.

In 1908 they purchased the stock of Mistrot Bros., a mercantile firm which had moved their flood - and hurricane - damaged stock to Henderson after the great Galveston Flood. Mistrot Bros. was located in the old Tom Arnold Building on North Marshall Street (Later, Alford Bros. Motor Company). M. Kangerga & Bro., then occupied the corner building across from First National Bank, which is now the Beall Bros. Department Store.

By 1912, they were established in their new quarters, the two-storey brick building still known as the Kangerga Building on the south side of the public square in Henderson. The mercantile business occupied the lower floor and was sold in 1931 to M. Packman, a merchant from El Dorado, Ark. This was the beginning of the oil boom. The offices of the banking and financial part of M. Kangerga & Bro., occupied the upper floor, and still do, under the capable management of another Michael Kangerga, the son of Rade Kangerga.

Michael Kangerga's hobby was observing the weather, and when the U. S. Department of Commerce established a weather station in Henderson in July of 1908, he became a volunteer weather observer, a post he held for over 50 years. In 1960, he received the HOLM AWARD "For superior accomplishment in maintaining dependable and accurate weather observations for over five decades at Henderson, Texas...."

He was married in 1896 to Miss Lillian Lula Gladney, the daughter of Joseph Steward Gladney and Ronda Tatum Gladney. (Both the Gladneys and the Tatums were pioneer families of Rusk County). In 1896, he bought the Merritt property on North High Street, and in 1901 built the beautiful house which still stands today, an excellent example of turn-of-the-century architecture.

Michael and Lillian Kangerga had three daughters: Alicia Helena, Augusta Orell and Lillian Gladney, all of them beautiful and talented. Orell, perhaps was the most beautiful. Her cousin, now the eminent Joseph C. Gladney, Judge of the 4th Judicial District Court, Rusk County Texas, said of her that even when he was a young boy, he thought she was the most beautiful lady he ever saw. She studied elocution and dramatic art in Boston, Mass., and traveled for several seasons with the Chautauqua Series.

Alicia was proficient both in piano and violin, having studied the violin under Professor Charles D. Hahn in Dallas. Lillian was the youngest and provided an always enthusiastic audience for her talented sisters. Mrs. Kangerga herself was a musician and artist; and several of her oils and water colors remain in the house and among members of her family.

In 1934 Michael Kangerga went back to visit to his homeland, now named Yugoslavia. He and his brother, Rade, endowed a church and school in their native town of Otocac, Croatia. His 1934 passport, No. 101567, is in the possession of his daughter, Lillian (Mrs. Thomas W. Sowell, 6310 Mercedes Avenue, Dallas, Texas). It described Michael Kangerga as being 5 feet, 7 inches tall, with grey hair and brown eyes. Place of birth: Yugoslavia; Occupation: Merchant. The Yugoslavia Visa was issued by General Konzulat Jugoslavije, June 7, 1934.

After Mrs. Kangerga's death in 1951, Michael ("Mr. Millie") stayed on in the big house on High Street until his death in 1962.

455. John⁸ Gladney (Thomas (Jefferson?)⁷, James⁶, Thomas⁵, Samuel⁴, Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 05 Oct 1852 in Oktibbeha County MS, and died 13 Jun 1924 in Starkville, Oktibbeha County MS. He married Isabelle Hasseltine Cross 21 Jan 1876, daughter of William Cross and Nancy McKell. She was born 11 Oct 1851, and died 20 Jan 1929 in Starkville, Oktibbeha County MS.

Notes for John Gladney:

John, oldest son of Thomas, was a farmer, but had a town house (406 South Jackson Street) in Starkville MS where the family lived. He married Isabelle Hasseltine Cross, and they were the parents of six children. Particularly noteworthy was the dedication of these parents to their children's education. All six were given a college education, the boys at Mississippi A and M College (now Mississippi State University at Starkville) and the girls at Mississippi State College for Women. One of his sons, Henry Terry Gladney, went to Louisiana where he married Ora Wakeman of Shreveport, Caddo Parish LA. They made their home in Shreveport LA. Their only child, Mrs. Marianne D'Artois, was a teacher at Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge LA. She has contributed her family records for this genealogy. Another son, John Bedford Gladney and his wife, Frances Carpenter Gladney live in Eudora AR.

PROMINENT CITIZEN EXPIRES SUDDENLY

When, on last Friday evening at 9:30 o'clock the news spread that Mr. John Gladney had expired suddenly at his home in this city, a hall of sorrow enveloped the community that Time cannot lift beyond the horizon of impending shadows.

While Mr. Gladney had been in a state of low health for several weeks, and was a sufferer from rheumatism, he pursued his usual activity and at the time death overtook him was in good spirits after a day spent in looking after the affairs pertaining to his business and an evening spent in social intercourse with his wife and some neighbors who had called at the Gladney home.

When the neighbors had departed and he was in the act of retiring he was seized with a spell of coughing, probably brought about by the rupture of a blood vessel, hemorrhage set in and before medical aid could reach him his spirit had taken its flight unto the God who gave it and whom he so earnestly and devoutly served in act and precept.

Deceased was in his seventy-second year of life, a native of Oktibbeha county and a descendant of those sturdy parents who came to this country in its infancy and builded it upon a foundation of truth, character and toil that have ever characterized it and places it in a scale of aristocracy that towers above and beyond that of other communities.

Truly can it be said that John Gladney was a man among men, one of those staunch characters of whom it can be truly said that he was ever ready and eager to sacrifice his pleasures, his tact and his talents for the betterment of his fellowman, and the world is better that he thus lived and exercised these sovereign beatitudes as a citizen.

Throughout his life the subject of this sketch, the subject of the sorrow that is now intensely felt throughout this section, was a man in whom his fellows could and did trust implicitly for a fearlessness of expression, a leadership in things civic, politic and moral that could and did lead only unto a better and higher scope of life, for in his "alloted days," shorn of all but the pleasurable intent found in duty well done, he gloried and passed on and anon, even unto death, unthoughted of self in the impulse for those of the broad world whom he loved and desired to serve.

Mr. Gladney is survived by his wife Mrs. Hassie Cross Gladney and five children, two daughters and three sons, namely: Mrs. J. T. Cox, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Mrs. S. W. Pankey, Starkville, and Messrs. Will T., Henry and John B. Gladney, of Chicago, Shreveport, La., and Bunkie, La., respectively, all of whom with the exception of Mrs. Cox, who was detained at home on account of the illness of a daughter, arrived in the city in time for the funeral on Sunday afternoon. The brothers and sisters who survive are Messrs. David and James Gladney of Artesia and Tom Gladney of San Antonio, Texas and Mesdames Will Hopkins and Hamilton Ellis of Starkville and James Wyton of Jacksonville, Florida.

The funeral services were conducted at the home on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock by Rev. U. S. Gordon of the Presbyterian church, in which deceased had been for many years an active deacon and worker, the interment immediately following in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

One of the splendid tributes to Mr. Gladney's popularity was attested by the number of colored people who called at the home and who attended the burial, many of them old family darkies who manifested an abject sorrow at his demise.

She married James David McCann 1878, son of John McCann and Zilly Roberts. He was born 1852, and died 1922.

Notes for Nancy Isabelle Gladney:

Born at "Red Acre," home of Thomas J. Gladney. Attended a Female Institute at Verona MS. One nephew said that he thought he was going to heaven when he went to visit Aunt Belle. Mama was very kind to the Indians who lived in the community and ministered to them during their illnesses. She made her children call the old darkies "Uncle" and "Aunt" out of respect for their age. She sewed for the negroes and made wedding cakes for some of them because I remember going to one of the negro weddings. Mama would take some of the children, together with beddings and food, to Winston Springs in Winston County every year for their health. This seemed to be a sort of resort of its day and many families went there. There was a main dwelling and then cabins and tents where the people stayed. This was all before my day but I wish that I did know all of the particulars. I think that it was during one of these vacations that one of my little sisters died. Mama and Papa lost three little girls who were all born several years before I came into this world. Their names were: Maude Lorraine (Tee-Tee), Anna Belle and Lula Hamilton. (Copied from a letter from Margaret McCann Holland.)

When she married James D. McCann in 1878 she was twenty-one years old. She wore her hair in seventy-two curls for her wedding, in the coiffure of the times. They lived in the Oktoc Community and were members of the old Vernon Presbyterian Church (Seceder).

He married Ada Charity Eoff 09 Feb 1904 in Blanket, Brown County TX. She was born 26 Jul 1883 in Covington, Hill County TX, and died 23 Jun 1967 in Wellington, Collingsworth County TX.

Notes for John Lindsey Gladney:

John had just turned 15 when his father died. He and his next brother Frank tried to help their mother, pregnant with her last child. He soon left home to follow the wheat harvest to earn money. By 1902 he was in Brown County TX, where he married Ada Charity Eoff, 09 Feb 1904. They moved to Wellington, Collingsworth County TX after their fourth child was born. He became a prominent farmer and was an active worker in the First Christian Church. After his unexpected death 10 May 1942, the following few lines appeared in the local paper: "I was shocked to learn of the death of John Gladney. He was a friendly and likeable man to me. He had strong likes and dislikes, but he was so loyal to his friends. I have reason to know." He and Ada are both buried in the Wellington Cemetery.

Although his parents were married in Whitesburg, (no official record has been found on this yet) it is not believed the family lived there. His death certificate says "Atlanta" so perhaps they lived in Campbell County, which later became part of Fulton County. The 1880 Census lists them in Carroll County, so that is what we have used.

"He devoted his life to answering the call of those that needed him.

Gladney Memorial Clinic"

Dr. James Clifford Gladney served the people of Walker County during the depression years, when money was scarce, and payment for services was sometime still made in produce. Mr. G. B. Alexander, administrator of People's Hospital, said that he worked closely with Dr. Gladney for eight years, and had never known him to turn away a patient because there were no funds to pay for necessary treatment. Dr. T. J. Payne, a former partner of Dr. Gladney at the Walker County Clinic, remembers calls that he used to make visits into the hills in all sorts of weather to reach someone who needed him. He also remarked upon his devotion to the welfare of the people seeking his professional help.

Notes for Robert Lee Gladney:

The genealogy records are indebted to the late Mr. Robert Lee Gladney for information which was checked later for verification in Census enumerations, marriage records of the counties, local cemeteries and individual family Bibles. Mr. Gladney carried all of these records including birth dates, date of death, and place of burial, in his memory, depending on no written record. This information was passed down to him from his father Lemuel M. Gladney, son of John. Mr. Gladney lived alone, after the death of his wife, in his cottage at Centralhatchee GA. He inspired the tradition of a family reunion every summer, for descendants of his grandfather, though anyone who bore the name of Gladney was welcomed. Robert Lee Gladney, for many years prior to his death, wove cotton baskets from hickory splints, and once said that he had woven over 2,000 baskets.

Notes for Samuel Calvin Gladney:

Near Clem GA where he has lived for over fifty-two years is another remarkable member of the same group of Gladneys. Samuel Calvin Gladney is the son of C. B. Gladney, third son of John and Mary Ann Russell Gladney. He has been a successful farmer, and in 1965 at 86 years of age, still lived on the home place with his wife, Louvella Jones Gladney, in their comfortable and charming residence, making their garden every spring, and growing flowers for their children and any friends whom may want them. His memory, too, is phenomenal and accurate. He carries records for all members of his branch of the family in his memory, even back to his grandfather's time, though there are written records in some of the small groups.

GLADNEY--Mr. Sam C. Gladney, age 90, died early Thursday. Surviving are his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Alice Fuller, Mrs. Leamon Harper, Carrollton GA., Mrs. Alton Davenport, Whitesburg GA.; one son, Mr. Cecil Gladney, Marietta, Ga.; six grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. R. H. Heath, Carrollton GA. Funeral services will be conducted Friday, June 13, at 4 p.m. from the Clem Methodist Church, with the Rev. J. Austin Gladney and Elder James Embry officiating. The body will lie in state at the church from 3 p.m. until the funeral hour. Interment, churchyard. Martin & Hightower Funeral Home, Carrollton GA. Notes for Dr. James Frank Gladney, Jr.:

After 45 years of medical service to Claiborne Parish, James F. Gladney, Jr., M.D., has been enjoying the years since retiring. He has remained very active managing a cattle farm, a timber farm, and fulfilling his civic and professional duties.

His life began in Homer Louisiana. Gladney graduated from Southwestern at Memphis, now Rhodes College, and obtained his medical degree from Tulane University. Prior to his private practice as a family physician and surgeon in Homer, he completed his surgery residence with the U.S. Army. He then founded and still serves on the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Village Nursing Home. During this time period he married Margaret Ford. They reared seven children, of whom four have chosen to live and work in the area.

Gladney has an impressive history of civic and professional service. The Homer Lions Club gave him the Melvin Jones Fellow Award for the "Sight First" project. He is also an Elder and active member of the local Presbyterian Church. He has served on the Homer Memorial Hospital's Board of Directors. North Louisiana AHEC is proud to credit him as being a charter board member and honored him in 1993 for his outstanding service as vice president, president elect and president of the Board of Directors. Gladney was also honored as the "Outstanding Family Physician for Louisiana" in 1986. He is also recognized as a charter member of the American Academy of Family Practice.

Gladney joined the North Louisiana AHEC team in 1989 because he believed it could improve health care in small towns and rural parishes. "it (AHEC) has helped the hospital, clinics and the town (Homer) as a whole," said Gladney.

Even though he lives an exemplary life, "Dr. James" is a humble man with the desire to serve and to provide a healthy environment for the children of Claiborne Parish to grow up in.

Notes for Dr. John Davidson Gladney:

"I grew up knowing I wanted to go to Rhodes and knowing about the "Man" course from my older sisters who attended Rhodes before me. I had full anticipation entering Rhodes that this was something important....Not a day goes by that I don't harken back to something I learned in the 'Man' course. I can still remember many of the lectures: Dr. Patterson talking about romanticism, Dr. Llewellyn teaching Emanuel Knat, Dr. Batey's talks about Peter in the New Testament. As students our horizons were broadened....

"I remember in 1974 when my sister Rose was in graduate school and discovered that she had accidentally thrown away her 'Man' notebooks. She was so upset: it was as if she'd thrown away her birthright....

Much loved and respected Heard County educator, Patricia Yvonne Nutt Barber passed away on October 4, 2014 and was met at the Easter Gate by her beloved husband, Hollis Barber.

Funeral services will be conducted on Tuesday, October 7, 2014 at 4 P.M. from the Union Grove Baptist Church in Heard County. She will lie- in -state 30 minutes prior to service time. Visitation will be 10-12 Noon, and 6-8 P.M Monday, October 6, 2014 at Stutts Funeral Home.

Mrs. Barber was born in Centralhatchee, Georgia on May 3, 1940, the daughter of the late Elva Nutt. From a very early age it was clear that she was a gentle, kind person, who had a great desire to help others. As a classmate of the graduating class of 1958 she remained in close contact with many who were always dear to her. She never forgot the close friendships that were developed in those early years. Her desire to help others, especially children led her to West Georgia College where she obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education and Library Science. After several years of teaching, and raising her own children she furthered her education with a Masters, and Specialist Degree also in Education. She devoted her working life to educating children with a specific desire to give them the basis for all learning, a love for reading. Her devotion to each of her students gave each of the little ones she taught a better chance in life to succeed. "Miss. Pat" will long be remembered by each of the lives she touched by her wonderful teaching skills and the love that she gave to each student. She was an active member of the Union Grove Baptist Church. Her children and grandchildren consider themselves blessed to call her mother and grandmothers, but she was the one who would tell you quickly that she was the blessed one to have such a wonderful family. There was nothing that she loved more than having her entire family around her kitchen table, all under her roof once again. She will be greatly missed by all who had the great privilege to have known her.

She is survived by one daughter, Tammi Steele (Jackie, Sr); two sons, Mark Barber (Sandy), and Shane Barber (Pam) all of Franklin, GA.; grandchildren Jackie “Bucky” Steele, Jr. (Kate) of Clermont, FL., Nikkie Horne (Chris) of LaGrange, GA., and Bradley Barber of Franklin, GA.; one aunt, Sara Nutt of Centralhatchee, GA.; sister and brother- in-law, Dinkey Proctor (Scott) of Franklin, GA., and Arnold Barber of Bremen, GA.; and one dear friend, Pearl Goss.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of forty-three year, Hollis Barber; her mother Elva Nutt; and devoted cousin, Robbie Buchannan.

Notes for Cecil Ernest Gladney:

ORDINARY HERO: CECIL GLADNEY OF

by Dr. Mac Martin

"The 987th Field Artillery Battalion was assigned to a lot of different organizations from time to time. We were part of the U.S. 1st Army, but when we first got to France we fought with the British 30th Division and later with the 2nd Army. For a good portion of time, we were assigned to the 82nd Airborne moving north through France," said Cecil Gladney of Whitesburg. "We would be assigned to a division, and fight with it, until the division was relieved and replaced with another outfit. We were then assigned to the new division and fought with it. We didn't get relieved or replaced. We were a battalion of twelve 155 mm. self propelled guns. There were two battalions at Camp Bowie, Texas, while we were training. The 174th went to Italy, I believe."

The 155 mm. Self Propelled Gun shot a 96 pound, 6 inch diameter projectile over 25,000 yards when elevated. It could also be used like a rifle with a telescopic sight, firing on the level at over 1500 yards. That mode was used to knock out pillboxes, particularly on the Siegfried Line. The shot could penetrate over four feet of reinforced concrete and explode inside the bunker, and range could also be varied by the number of packets of powder placed behind the projectile when loading the gun. The weapon could also fire high explosive and armor piercing rounds.

"When it hit a tank, the tank just disintegrated," remarked Gladney.

The gun was mounted on a modified tank chassis powered by a nine cylinder radial air cooled engine. It was a massive vehicle, weighing 30 tons; approximately 30 feet long and traveling on extra wide tracks.

"In the rear of the tank, there was a blade like a bulldozer that we lowered into the ground when we got ready to fire. That kept the recoil from moving the gun backwards," said Gladney.

Cecil Gladney entered the military service on November 23, 1942 through Fort McPherson, Georgia. He and Pauline Hall had married on April 4th, and they were living in Whitesburg, Georgia. Their only child was stillborn while they were stationed at Camp Bowie.

Gladney had basic training in Fayetteville, North Carolina, and was assigned to the 987th Field Artillery Battalion, part of the 1st Army. He was trained as a mechanic to maintain the machinery. The battalion completed training at Camp Bowie, Texas, and, on March 4, 1944, boarded the "Ile de France". They arrived in Scotland on March 21st and transferred to Clacton-on-Sea, southeast coast of England.

On June 1, 1944, they boarded an LST and joined the convoy forming up for the invasion. As they sailed south through the Strait of Dover, they saw the White Cliffs, but no blue birds. A LST next to theirs struck a mine and sank.

"We arrived at our landing point at night and transferred to LCI's (Landing Craft, Infantry). These were smaller craft, and it was good that they were, because planes were bombing and strafing the large ships. I guess they couldn't see us," continued Gladney as he visualized the scene. "There were bodies and parts of bodies floating everywhere and lying on the beach.

"At daylight, we went ashore and loaded on trucks. We had landed on a beach near Bayeux, France and were with British troops. For the next several days we were strafed and bombed and several of our men were injured, but none killed.

"Fighting through the hedge rows was a nightmare. Bulldozers had to clear the way before tanks could advance through them. The Germans had gun emplacements under cover and they retreated very slowly.

"When we broke through the hedge rows, the traveling was easier but we continued to get shelling, strafing and bombing. We fired thousands of rounds and our other artillery and planes were active also. In one pocket the division captured several thousand Germans. Sixty percent of them had ruptured eardrums. They were surrendering or running as fast as they could. There were parts of enemy and allied bodies lying everywhere," he said.

The 987th changed assignments every few days; 82nd Airborne, V Corps, VII Corps, 30th Division, and many others, but continued in combat status.

Gladney remembered, "Maintenance and repair was a constant day and night job. I would work on the machines at night by touch with only a small light so we wouldn't get shelled. When we first got the tanks they had mufflers on the exhaust. They didn't last long. They would explode. I finally designed a straight pipe for the engines and they ran better with more power."

The battalion moved north through Paris and was assigned to the 5th Armored Division. They entered Luxembourg in September, 1944, and the division moved on up to Roetgen, Germany.

On December 15, 1944, the Germans started a massive counterattack along the 78th division front. It was the beginning of the Battle of the Bulge.

"The division moved back to Belgium near Malmedy. There was continuous heavy fighting. Hundreds of Buzz Bombs came over. When the engine quit, the only thing you could do was hope it didn't land on you. Most of the time we could tell if it was near enough to come close, but not always."

Asked about his feelings during combat, Gladney said, "There were many times when artillery shells or bombs could have been a little closer and gotten me. You just couldn't worry about that. One time, I was talking to two friends and decided to return to the section for some reason. I was less than 100 yards away from them when a shell landed on them. I don't know whether they were killed or just wounded. They were taken away and we didn't hear any more about them. Another two or three minutes and I could have been with them."

When the German push was stopped and turned back, the division, with the 987th, moved back to Roetgen and started across Germany, crossing the Rhine at Remagen. The battalion destroyed over 100 pillboxes. Resistance was less and less and Germans started surrendering by the thousands. In the Ruhr pocket, 225,000 enemy were captured when the 1st and 9th Armies joined forces.

Gladney said, "We were moving so fast, we couldn't take care of prisoners. We just directed them back toward the rear. We continued on to Leipzig and then turned into Czechoslovakia. We were at Pilsen when the war ended on May 8, 1945.

"It took until August 18, 1945, before I arrived at Camp Shanks, New York. Our last day on the boat, we had no food, but they fed us steaks as soon as we got ashore. The next day we were on a train for Fort Mac. I was given duty at home twice for fifteen days and was finally discharged on October 16, 1945."

After the war, Gladney attended the University of Georgia in Atlanta and traveled for Addressograph-Multigraph Corp., and for Crawford Co., a floor covering manufacturer. After retiring from those jobs he opened a Westinghouse appliance and repair store in Whitesburg.

He and Pauline retired from that in 1987 and for several years he was a volunteer driver for the Cancer Society and other charitable organizations.

(Copied from "The Carroll Star News", dated April 30 - May 6, 2000.)

Mr. Cecil E. Gladney, age 91, of Carrollton passed away Monday, September 9, 2013 following an extended illness. He was born on March 26, 1922, in Carrollton, Georgia, to the late Mr. Sam Gladney and Mrs. Mary Jones Gladney.

He proudly served in the United States Army during World War II and the Battle of the Bulge. He entered the military service on November 23, 1942 through Fort McPherson, Georgia. He was trained as a mechanic to maintain the tanks and other machinery. He served continuously during D-Day up until the very end with meeting the Russians in Czechoslovakia. It gave him great joy and honor to serve and defend our great country. He was a member of the Buck Creek Lodge #639, American Legion #143, and Carroll Eastern Star.

He married the love of his life, Pauline Hall on April 4, 1942, and together conceived their only child, Sammy Filford Gladney, who was stillborn while they were stationed at Camp Bowie. He owned and operated Cecil's Sales and Service Company in the hardware industry. He loved his career as a repair man because he was able to use this skill as a way to minister to many people. He also gave much of his time as a volunteer driver for the American Cancer Society, in which he spent 15 years driving cancer patients to and from doctors' appointments. He was a member of Clem United Methodist Church and was the founder of the Gladneys in America Reunions, which will take place in Carrollton, Georgia this year.

Besides his parents, preceding him in death is his wife Pauline Gladney; infant son, Sammy Gladney; and sisters, Ezel Harper, Alice Fuller, and Geneva Davenport.

Survivors include nieces and nephews, Jackie Harper Moore (Billy), Melba Smith (Michael), Carolyn Harper, Calvin Harper (Earline), W.C. Fuller (Ruth), and Pelham Harper (Marie); and numerous great-nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday, September 12, 2013, at 11 a.m. from Martin & Hightower Heritage Chapel. Interment will follow in Oak Hill Cemetery in Newnan.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Tuesday, September 10, 2013 from 5-8 p.m.

Notes for Paula Virginia Thomasson:

AGRI, TRAVEL ARE THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

It's a long way from the cotton fields on the T. J. Bolen farm at Sherrill to a seat on Air Force One.

So far, these appear to be among the extremes in the life of Paula Thomasson.

Miss Thomasson is a special assistant for internal affairs for the federal Agriculture Department, detailed to the White House from time to time for special travel assignments.

Now a Washington D.C. resident, Miss Thomasson is the daughter of W. J. and Betty Thomasson of Pine Bluff. During a recent visit here with her parents, she recalled some of her experiences.

During her special assignments, she is one of several people -- many volunteers -- who take the responsibility of planning and excuting -- down to the minutest detail -- that President and Mrs. Bill Clinton are where they should be, when they should be.

"Our job is to protect him and his time," Miss Thomasson said of her duties as a scheduler for Clinton and formerly for the First Lady, Hillary Rodham Clinton.

It's not a rocket science, but a thought process that involves common sense, she said. "You know how the Clintons would want something to occur."

She knows the president well, Miss Thomasson said. She is very much aware that he is a "people person" so she provides the time for him to "work a room or rope line," speaking to and touching as many people as possible.

A lot of times, some of the trip planners will go to the countries to meet with the embassy staffs and look at sites, then come back and determine the schedule and put the trip together. When the time comes, the advance team goes and puts the plan in motion.

The police and drivers are always thanked by the President and First Lady, Miss Thomasson said. They make a point of thanking all who make the visit a success.

After a trip, Miss Thomasson said, she writes lots and lots of thank-you notes. When Annette Bain had The Personal Touch at Pine Bluff, Miss Thomasson said that she was one of her best customers, because when she came home she always bought lots of stationery.

The President and First Lady also send a lot of thank-you notes. "Thank-you notes are a top priority," Miss Thomasson said.

The trip -- Nov. 28 through Dec. 3 -- was the best yet, she said. It included stops in the United Kingdom, Ireland, Germany and Spain.

While in Germany, the President and First Lady were at the Baumholder Army Base, where the President had lunch with and addressed 3,000 troops. This was right before American troops were sent to Bosnia. Clinton also did his weekly radio address from the base.

Before this trip, Miss Thomasson was detailed full-time to the White House for six weeks. Her responsibility was for Germany and Spain, which was an economic summit.

En route to Germany, the motorcade left the hotel at Dublin at 6:45 a.m. She completed the written part of her duties at 5:50 a.m. She had kept two copy machines and some assistants working all night.

The information in the trip books include the schedule down to the minute and who rides where, along with scenarios for each event. Making sure that the schedule is followed is the charge of the trip director and the lead advance person.

Miss Thomasson was detailed to the White House for two weeks before Mrs. Clinton's trip to the Fourth World Conference on Women at Beijing, China, in September.

Planning a foreign trip can take months, but the trip to Beijing was a last-minute decision, Miss Thomasson said. Whatever length of time is available for making arrangements, the planners try to eliminate all the surprises.

When Mrs. Clinton gave her speech on the floor of the conference, "I was so proud of her. There were tears in my eyes."

The next day, Mrs. Clinton was scheduled to speak at the Non-Governmental Organization Forum at Hairou, China. She was going to speak outdoors, but it was raining and the event had to be moved indoors to a room about the size of the Pine Bluff High School Cafeteria with a balcony. It would accommodate about 1,500 people, Miss Thomasson said.

When Mrs. Clinton spoke, "we all had tears in our eyes for the second day in a row."

After this day, which, Miss Thomasson said, almost defies description with difficulties on almost every side, Mrs. Clinton treated her staff and 14 members of the White House press corps to a traditional Chinese dinner at Beijing.

Every trip is memorable, Miss Thomasson said, but from an humanitarian aspect, the trip last year to Asia with Mrs. Clinton and her daughter, Chelsea, was the best.

Miss Thomasson has also had responsibilities for trips to the former Soviet Union, South America, Japan, Korea, Indonesia and Canada.

Agriculture has always been of interest to her, Miss Thomasson said. For two summers, while she was in college, she worked as a cotton scout for Bolin at Sherrill. This led to her working on the farm bill with Pryor and becoming the junior agricultural aide for Bumpers.

Working with agriculture and her detail assignments to the White House for travel provide her with the best of both worlds, Miss Thomasson said.

In her job at the Agriculture Department, which she has had since 1993, she is involved with promoting American agricultural exports.

When she travels, she said that she tries to talk to agricultural attache's and see what's on the shelves at the grocery stores. The important things, she said, is "you are preserving American agriculture."

She learned a lot about agriculture from her father who is a tree farmer and spent part of the week during her recent visit walking through the woods with him.

She also gained knowledge about agriculture from Bolin, and the money that she made from cotton scouting paid for her time at Cambridge (England) University.

And, she said, she hopes to continue learning.

During her junior year in college, she wrote a paper on the cultural impact of cotton on the Arkansas Delta.

Her value system was established early and, she said, she believes agriculture played an important part.

She also credits two Pine Bluff High School teachers, Wade Hall and Mary Morgan, as being major influences. When she's home and it can be scheduled, she speaks to Hall's classes -- proving to students that "Yes, there is a life beyond Pine Bluff High School."

Miss Thomasson's family also has a house and farm at Pansy (Cleveland County). She is a 1986 graduate of Pine Bluff High School and received a bachelor of arts degree in journalism from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. She completed a minor in political science at Cambridge through the university at Fayetteville.

She graduated from college in 1990 and went to Washington as a summer intern to work on the farm bill in the office of Sen. David Pryor, Democrat of Little Rock. She said that she had every intention of coming home in the fall to attend law school.

She put that plan on hold when a full-time position in the office of Sen. Dale Bumpers, Democrat of Charleston, became available. She was on Bumpers' staff for two years until July 1992, and then she worked briefly for the Democratic Senatorial Committee.

After the National Democratic Convention at New York, Miss Thomasson went to work with the Clinton presidential campaign, doing advance work for Mrs. Clinton, and then working at Little Rock through the transition.

Traditionally the First Lady does a ball and luncheon as part of the inaugural activities. But Mrs. Clinton wanted to do a salute to children's show, which involved the likes of Kermit the Frog for two performances at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts at Washington. Miss Thomasson was the deputy event coordinator for this activity.

Politics were not new to Miss Thomasson. As a volunteer, before the convention, she had worked in the Clinton campaign in New Hampshire, Chicago, New York and Maryland.

The situation in 1992 was that there was a lot of momentum for Clinton, Miss Thomasson said, but who knew -- a governor from a small Southern state?

On a state level, while in college, Miss Thomasson had been hammering signs up and down the "pig trail" (state Highway 23) as a member of the College Democrats.

Miss Thomasson is a cousin of Patsy Thomasson of Rison, who is the deputy director of presidential personnel and a longtime political associate of Clinton's.

Paula Thomasson and Patsy Thomasson were born 20 years and one day apart. Paula Thomasson celebrated her 28th birthday while she was home for the recent visit with her parents.

Notes for Patricia Anne Gladney:

Interim Pastor at the Wellshire Presbyterian Church in Denver CO. (1995)

Tribune-Herald, 7 Dec 1985, Waco TX

The year before Trish Holland entered Austin Seminary, the (U.S.) Presbyterian Church voted to allow women into the ministry.

Twenty years later, Mrs. Holland helps her husband, George, minister at Central Presbyterian Church. The couple is one of Waco's first married minister teams.

"I just feel very thankful to serve with the man I love (and) a congregation of people that I already love," Mrs. Holland said.

Mrs. Holland's ordination last Sunday was the logical conclusion to a theological journey begun 20 years ago. The Holland's married in January 1968, their senior year at seminary in Austin.

She declared herself a candidate for the ministry once, but withdrew to start a family. "They don't ordain women just to be wives and mothers," she said.

After the four children were settled in school, Mrs. Holland declared herself a candidate for a second time. After more study in theology and examination, she was ready to heed her call, with her husband's support.

"Several years ago, we began to think about what kind of position Trish could seek in order to carry out an ordained ministry," Holland said.

Holland said he never doubted his wife would join him as a minister.

"She's very gifted for the ministry," Holland said. "I knew that at some later day, she would be (a minister)."

"I felt fortunate for her to be my wife, and that we could start a family beforehand."

"Up until this summer, we didn't know the call would be to this church," she said. "I had anticipated a call to a part-time ministry, because I still wanted to be primarily available to my family. So I had anticipated being called to being pastor of a small church or a counseling center."

However, the Central Presbyterian Church congregation needed a director of Christian education--Mrs. Holland's undergraduate major--and the congregation called on her to serve.

Neither minister doubts that they will make a good team.

"We worked together as a team for 18 years," Mrs. Holland said. As we considered calls to other places, we realized we would lose by dividing our energies."

"She's too capable for it not to work," Holland said.

While there is an association of Presbyterian clergy couples with about 500 members, Holland can think of only one husband-and-wife ministry, which he encountered several years ago. The memory leaves him optimistic.

"They were interim ministers. Wherever they went, people experienced their strength," he said. "The congregations became very open to clergy couples on a permanent basis. Each had unique gifts that complemented the other."

While Mrs. Holland obviously is pleased with her situation, she says she remains grateful to the congregation that made it all possible.

"It is one thing to call as your pastor a woman who comes to you highly recommended whose feet of clay you have yet to discover," she told the Grace Presbytery on 18 Nov.

"It is quite another thing to call as one of your pastors a woman with whom you have lived for 13 years, whose winsomeness and intelligence you appreciate but of whose weaknesses you are quite fully aware."

"That, my friends, I consider an act of faith, an act of confidence in the grace of God to work in and through and in spite of us."

Notes for Kenneth Michael Kirkpatrick:

Mr. Kenneth Michael Kirkpatrick, 68, of Columbia, formerly of Fort Lawn, passed away Saturday, January 2, 2016. He was born March 10, 1947 in Chapel Hill, NC, a son of the late George Bunyan Kirkpatrick and Evelyn McMath Kirkpatrick. Kenneth is predeceased by his older brother of two years, John Allen Kirkpatrick, who was hit by a drunken driver at age 7.

Most commonly known as “Ken” or “Kenny,” Mr. Kirkpatrick earned a Bachelor of Parks and Recreation from Clemson University in 1970. He was an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and held the position of middle guard on the Clemson Tigers football team from 1965-67 under the leadership of coaches Frank Howard and Art Baker. Ken’s dying wish was for his beloved Tigers to go 15-0 this season and win the National Championship. He lived to see his team win the Orange Bowl.

Ken was employed in the nuclear industry by Day & Zimmerman in ISI (In Service Inspection) where he received numerous certifications and forged many lasting friendships. He was also actively involved with the congregation of Ashland United Methodist Church in Columbia for many years.

“He loved to live,” writes Ashlyn Paisley Suttlemyre in her special memorial letter. This is an absolute truth to all who knew Ken, a people person who ministered so generously to others, always giving of his time and resources. It is an understatement to say that Ken will be missed.

Mr. Kirkpatrick is survived by his three sons: Kenneth Michael Kirkpatrick, II of Charleston, Christopher Shawn Kirkpatrick and his wife Elise Renee of Irmo, and Jonathan William Kirkpatrick of Irmo; three grandchildren: Joshua Blake and Emma Rose Kirkpatrick of Irmo, and Lucas Dogan Kirkpatrick of Charleston; dear friend and companion Martha Horne Eastburn of Columbia and her family: daughters Charlotte Groleau and Deborah Suttlemyre, wife of Wayne; and three grandchildren: Ashlyn Paisley and Adam Suttlemyre, and Charles Bruce Walsh; as well as many extended family members and friends.

A memorial service to celebrate the life of Mr. Kirkpatrick will be held in Columbia on Saturday, January 9, 2016 at 11 am at Ashland United Methodist Church, with the Reverends Mike Bruce, Dr. Jim Nates, and Thom Jones officiating, followed by a graveside service at 3:30 pm at Elmwood Cemetery in Fort Lawn, SC, with the Reverend John Rumford officiating.

Monday Profile WALTER REED IS LIKENED TO ACTOR JIMMY STEWART by Beth Alston, staff writer

Walter McDavid Reed is many things to many people. He has the roles of father, husband, and grandfather. He is teacher, mechanic, genealogist, and former pilot with 12,000 plus hours. He is friend to many and respected by most. He is a sort of Jimmy Stewart fellow and always has a smile for this writer.

Born in Lee County, Alabama, Reed moved with his family to Anderson, SC where his father managed the historic Ashtabula Plantation. After two years, the Reed family moved again to the Lenoir City area of Tennessee where Reed recalls playing in his father's car at the ripe old age of five when he accidentally released the brake and the car started rolling. "The crank shaft stuck in a tree and when I re-visited that place in the mid-sixties, the hole was still in that tree," he recalled. That was the beginning of Reed's adventure packed life. Reed decided he wanted to fly airplanes when he was eight years old when a plane clipped the telephone lines near his childhood home and landed in the river bottom. "I was standing in my yard when the plane landed and I ran, barefoot, through the swamps and snakes and briars, just to touch that plane." he said.

After graduating from Loudon High School in 1943, Reed applied for the Navy's four-year college program and was accepted but flunked the physical because his "teeth didn't meet in the front." The tall, lanky pilot-to-be then decided to take his chances at the Aviation Cadet Aptitude Examination for the US Army Air Corps. He passed that exam, in a big way, scoring the highest mark up ever recorded. He attended Winthrop College in Rock Hill, SC after which he started pre-flight training at Maxwell Field in Montgomery, AL. He was later shipped out to Moody Field in Valdosta.

Fresh out of pre-flight, Reed volunteered for flight training and was sent to Carlstrom Field in Arcadia, FL where he soloed after ten weeks in a Stearman PT-13. Shortly afterward, he went to Spence Field in Moultrie where he learned to fly the T-6. The flying school was closed soon after August 5, 1945, when the bomb was dropped on Hiroshima.

Reed elected to attend aircraft mechanics school at Keesler Field, Mississippi. He earned his private pilot's license at Gulfport in a Piper J-3 in November of 1945. That same year he re-enlisted at Keesler and was granted a 120-day leave and a bonus.

Reed went to Fort McPherson, Georgia for new orders and was reassigned, at his request, back to Maxwell Field. That's where Reed met his wife-to-be, whom he literally knocked off her feet when he bumped into her at a skating rink. "She was so small that I thought she was a young'un and picked her up," he said.

Reed earned his commercial pilot's license at Allenport near Montgomery in 1947 and attended Huntington College where he majored in math and minored in chemistry. He also bought the "biggest, most expensive motorcycle" he could find and returned home to Tennessee on a furlough. When he got to Chattanooga, a car pulled into his path and he was seriously injured in the crash. It was three months before he returned to Maxwell and proposed to the girl he had knocked down at the skating rink. He and the former Jean DuBois were married in September of 1947.

After leaving the Army in 1948, Reed took a job as a loan adjuster with First National Bank and continued his college education while "still flying on the side" with cropdusting during the summer months.

In 1951, he earned his flight instructor rating and his airframe and power plant license. That same year he started cropdusting with the Dothan Aviation Corp. He also flew newspapers during that period, dropping the bundles in GI duffel bags into empty lots for the delivery boys to pick up.

Reed recalled observing a tornado from a distance of about ten miles while flying his papers. "I had to fly those papers everyday, in rain, or shine or hurricane or tornado," Reed said with a twinkle in his eye.

Reed recalled one close call while cropdusting watermelons near Geneva, AL when he hit a terrace with his wheels and bounced his plane off the ground. "I didn't shut that cropduster off for two miles," he said.

Later he relocated his wife and family to Georgia when he took a job as cropduster with the Albany Air Service. He also started flying the Albany Herald to various small communities throughout south Georgia.

Reed said once when he threw his duffel bag of newspapers out, the bag became caught on the wire which runs from the front of the plane to the tail, providing vital control. Reed could do nothing to free the bag so was forced to fly back to Albany at full throttle after issuing a May Day call. When he landed there, the bag fell off but an Eastern Airlines plane, attempting to land at the opposite end of the field, was forced to "take to the grass."

Reed had one or two locations where he dropped just two or three newspapers. It was at one of those remote locations that Reed decided to be extra courteous on a rainy day and throw the bundle of three newspapers on the porch of the house. When he swooped down to tree-top level, he hurled the bundle in the direction of the porch and flew away. He learned the next day that the bundle had crashed through the front door and traveled through the hallway before taking out the back door as well. The paper got wet anyway.

Flying those papers were not always easy, Reed said. He said he had landed in winds so strong that he would have men grab his wings as he landed into the hanger doors and when cropdusting, he said he clipped at least one wire a year.

Reed recalled an incident which he described as "the closest I've come to getting killed cropdusting." A telephone wire became stuck in his plane's struts, causing it to roll. Reed increased his power enough to pull the pole completely out of the ground and even finished dusting the field before returning to the airport, but he knocked out phone service to a whole community.

He relocated to Dawson where he owned and operated a flying service from 1960 until 1970. He joined the faculty of South Georgia Tech in 1967 as an aircraft mechanics instructor and later a math teacher. He started teaching flying at Southern Field in 1973 where he taught hundreds of students to fly.

He recalled one of his students on his solo day who had to negotiate an emergency landing into a field when his plane's engine quit. There were fortunately no injuries and Reed said the only damages occurred when the fire truck lost a muffler on the way to the scene.

He said that women are the best students because "they're more gentle on the controls."

The last day that Reed flew a plane was Oct. 27, 1984 when he flew a Piper Tri-Pacer which was formerly owned by this writer's father. Reed flew the plane that day with one of his students for a lesson. Later the same day, Reed suffered heart failure and underwent open-heart surgery at Emory in Atlanta.

He has flown since then with other pilots but not his regular daily schedule. "I don't miss it as much as I thought I would," Reed said unconvincingly.

The Reeds have four children, Judy, a flight attendant with Delta; Danny, energy manager for the City of Fort Worth, Texas; David, a dispatcher with a trucking company in Jacksonville; and Rebecca, a teacher in Albany. They also have two granddaughters and a grandson.

Reed still teaches full-time at SGT and enjoys the county life at their home off U. S. 19 South where you can find him puttering around or gardening during his leisure time.

Notes for William Cody Gladney:

PEARL HARBOR - A NARRATIVE OF DECEMBER 7, 1941
by William Cody Gladney written March 24, 1983

Over forty-one years have passed since I observed the torpedoing, strafing and bombing action of Japanese planes over Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. Memories of the events of that morning are printed indelibly in my mind, but I still find it difficult to comprehend the great destruction that I saw there.

I had been in the US Navy since August 15, 1939. Having served on the battleship U. S. S. West Virginia from October 1939, I was promoted to yeoman petty officer third class in April 1941 and transferred to duty at the U. S. Navy Receiving Station located in the navy yard at Pearl Harbor.

The U. S. S. West Virginia and many ships of the Pacific fleet went to the Hawaiian Islands in April 1940 and Pearl Harbor became their home port. I had liked my work in the executive officer's office and battleship duties. My best friend, Dick Jesson, continued to serve on the U. S. S. West Virginia after I was promoted and transferred.

I became a transfer yeoman at the Receiving Station, preparing transfer orders for naval personnel to various ships and stations in the Pacific area including Johnston, Midway and Wake Islands. Occasionally, some lucky individual got transferred back to the States which usually meant a leave of absence or delay in reporting for duty.

I also enjoyed my assignment and duties at the Receiving Station. My buddy, Dick Jesson, and I spent a lot of time together on shore leave in Honolulu. We were both nineteen years old. I had one other close friend named Jack Pitcher, a yeoman whom I had worked with on the U. S. S. West Virginia. When I transferred in April 1941, he was assigned to my battle station as a primerman for one of the sixteen inch cannons in the battleship's number two turret.

On November 1, 1941, I was promoted to yeoman petty officer second class. I did a lot of celebrating during that month. On weekends, either Dick Jesson or Jack Pitcher would meet me at the Receiving Station and we would go on liberty together. For my friend Jack Pitcher, this was soon to end forever.

On Saturday, December 6, 1941, I went alone to Honolulu and spent most of the day and late evening there, treating myself to a Chinese dinner at a restaurant near Waikiki Beach. The permanent staff at the Receiving Station was small and we were allowed to sleep later on Sunday mornings - if you wanted to miss breakfast - which I did the next morning.

I was young. I had not had many thoughts about our Nation getting into the war that had been raging in Europe since 1939. I did know that my company at the U. S. Naval Training Station in San Diego, California, was the first to have "boot" leave canceled when we completed our recruit training there in September 1939. I was depressed about that because I was homesick for my home and family in Hubbard, Texas. We were told that leave for recruits was canceled because England and Germany had gone to war and our Nation was entering into a state of national emergency. At least, I later received a medal for service during this emergency period - the American Defense medal with a "Fleet" clasp. I didn't bother to read newspapers much or listen to radio news. My thinking was about a leave of absence which I wanted so much, but it had not been granted. I had read nothing about the diplomatic situation and relations between our Nation and the Japanese Empire. I was soon to learn about unfriendly relations between nations - war with all of its terror, death and destruction.

At about 7:50 a.m., Sunday morning, December 7, 1941, I was sitting on the edge of my bed on the second floor of the Receiving Station building. I had put on my dungaree trousers and shoes but no shirt. We wore white tee shirts because of the normally warm, sunny weather conditions. I talked with others who were still in the sleeping quarters - perhaps a dozen men. Others were downstairs having breakfast.

I heard a distant rumbling sound which seemed to come from Hickam Field, the U. S. Army Air Base adjoining the Pearl Harbor navy yard. I heard it again. The sound was closer, coming from another direction. I thought to myself that navy yard workmen were doing something - but what - on a Sunday morning?

I heard the loud sound of an airplane engine. Could some pilot be buzzing our building? I ran to a window. I looked down the water channel which came up alongside the Receiving Station building and coursed in the direction of Ford Island about six or seven hundred yards distant. I could see several of our battleships moored dead ahead. Something dropped from the plane that had buzzed our building and splashed into the water. Another plane flying at great speed with its motor roaring skirted the corner of our building and leveled out about thirty or forty feet above the water channel. I saw clearly big red circles on its wings as it flew steady and straight toward the row of battleships. A spout of water rose high into the air alongside a battleship, then I heard the sound of the exploding torpedo released by the first plane. The plane with the red circles dropped its torpedo - I saw plainly what it was. This particular water channel was the longest and most direct route to launch torpedoes broadside into the moored battleships. Another Japanese plane sped by with its long torpedo hanging ready to be released. I felt rooted to the floor where I was standing at the window. I realized that they were Japanese planes - a war was starting - they were being ruthless about it, giving us no opportunity to meet their attack. Another column of water rose 100-200 feet high alongside another battleship. The plane flew up over its target and circled away. The third plane dropped its torpedo. Another went by - more red spots before my eyes. I stood there and watched at least eight or nine torpedoes hit their target. I began to see other planes dive bombing at various places in the navy yard and over the Ford Island Navy Air Base. Soon, there were Japanese planes everywhere like a swarm of hornets - some strafing Ford Island - some dive bombing the navy yard drydocks which contained the battleship U. S. S. Pennsylvania and two destroyers, the U. S. S. Casson and U. S. S. Downs. I seem to recall hearing the wail of sirens as if they were crying out in sorrow - but still, a call to arms. Great clouds of black smoke began to billow from the damaged battleships.

A thought ran through my mind about my friends Dick Jesson and Jack Pitcher whom I knew were aboard the U. S. S. West Virginia. What was happening to them? Torpedo planes were still screaming by the Receiving Station. I sensed extreme danger. Get out - get away - a bomb may come through the roof of the building at any moment!

I ran downstairs to the first floor. Everything seemed to be in a complete state of confusion. Someone yelled for me to go to our small armory in the building. One of our chief petty officers had opened it. I was given a new World War I doughboy type steel helmet, a bandoleer of cartridges, and an old model .30 caliber bolt action rifle - I believe it was a Springfield model. An officer ordered several men to go with him to the drydock area to help fight fires. Jack Fletcher, a yeoman third class, and another yeoman second class named Bronnenberg, both of whom worked in the personnel office with me, left in this group of men. I ran outside the Receiving Station with about ten other men and we joined several marines at a location about 200 feet in front of the right side of the Receiving Station building. We were in an open area without any kind of protection or cover. The Japanese torpedo planes were still flying almost directly over us as they approached the channel leading to the battleships.

Four or five rifle shots were fired at an enemy plane. More men began firing. I loaded my rifle and took aim, thinking that I should lead the speeding planes somewhat. As I had my finger on the trigger a thought raced through my mind that I didn't want to kill anyone. Intent to kill - desire to kill - these things were not with me, but I do believe that God or His Holy Spirit or perhaps a guardian angel was very close to me that day. The plane flew by my pointed unfired rifle. Then I realized that our lives were in extreme jeopardy; that I must shoot. I did - several times. We did the best that we were able to do for our Nation. Recalling the many shots that were fired by this group of perhaps twenty men, I still cannot understand why we were so ineffective. The planes were so close to us - perhaps not over 150-200 yards away. I can only assume that the planes were flying too fast and we did not compensate enough for that.

From our outside location where I could still see the battleships at Ford Island, I saw one of them settling down in the water. The most awesome sight was that of the U. S. S. Oklahoma rolling over and capsizing in the water. I almost cried. By this time the torpedo planes had done their damage and few were still making their runs. Strafing and dive bombing was intense. A few Japanese planes were dropping bombs from high altitude. At this time, when the attack had been underway for some time, I saw a great explosion on one of the battleships (U. S. S. Arizona) with smoke and fire shooting high over her. I believe that it has been established that she took a bomb down her stack which tore her apart and killed hundreds. Looking at casualty lists later, we knew that the greatest loss of life, by far, occurred aboard the U. S. S. Arizona. Today, a shrine is over what may remain of that gallant ship, honoring those who died and are still entombed in her.

Some return fire against the Japanese planes commenced within perhaps five minutes after they started their attack. There were a lot of other smaller naval ships at Pearl Harbor in addition to the battleships. Nearly all of them were attacked and damaged in some way. Most of the ships were soon firing back but it was really too late. I heard guns firing from the submarine base which was about 700 yards at the right of the Receiving Station. I could hear machine guns or other types of rapid fire weapons chattering away. I wished that there was just one .50 caliber machine gun atop the Receiving Station building. I'm sure that one at that location could have brought down several torpedo planes. I observed one torpedo plane explode and disintegrate as it was making a run toward the battleships. I believe that it received a direct hit. After it vanished from its flight, all that seemed to be left of it were bits of lint or cotton-like material floating gently down into the water. I saw one other enemy plane shot down over in the direction of the drydock area.

I began to fear the possibility of our group being strafed by one of the enemy planes. The Ford Island Naval Air Station was receiving the brunt of this kind of fire-power. It was very effective in damaging our grounded airplanes.

When the attack had lasted for about 30-35 minutes, one of the battleships (U. S. S. Nevada) at Ford Island got underway slowly. It was wonderful to see this, and I could hear cheering voices in support of her effort. If only she would move faster I thought. Her guns were fighting back! The "hornets" swarmed toward her, intent on a kill which would block the channel entrance to Pearl Harbor. She moved out of my line of vision. I learned later that she was damaged and beached away from the middle of the channel where it would not obstruct passage. She made a most gallant effort to get free.

The attack slowed. About forty-five to fifty minutes had gone by. The few enemy planes remaining were at high altitude dropping aerial bombs. This action seemed to be less effective. Pearl Harbor was dark with the smoke of battle. It was rolling out of the damaged and crippled ships with flashing fire coloring it's darkness. Escaping oil was afire on the water around the ships. Many survivors were in the water, and small boats were running about to rescue them. I breathed air that smelled of smoke, death and destruction. I felt sick and weak in my stomach. It was an awesome, unbelievable sight to look at, especially the once majestic and proud battleships that had been the pride of the Navy. I don't know if there is fury in Hell - there was at Pearl Harbor that Sunday morning. The attack ended - the enemy planes disappeared - guns ceased firing - and there seemed to be a ghostly silence and calmness all about.

I returned with others to the Receiving Station building. There seemed to be confusion and fright in everyone. I sat down at a mess table and drank a cup of coffee for my breakfast. No superior officers were giving orders or instructions to do anything.

The small rescue boats started bringing survivors to the liberty boat landing between the Receiving Station and the submarine base. Survivors began to stream into our building, sitting down everywhere and on the floor next to a wall. Many were quiet in their own solitude. I saw some shedding tears.

A rumor started - Japanese troops are landing by sea on the other side of the island! It was perhaps ten o'clock. We waited for instructions. A message came shortly that no such action was taking place.

The station filled with survivors. Officers and yeomen from the abandoned ships started setting up tables in corners and along the walls as temporary offices for their ship's personnel to report for registration. They continued for several days to prepare lists of their survivors, those known to be killed, and those missing in action. For awhile, I had a copy of the complete report for most of the battleships. I regret that I did not keep it when I transferred later.

Jack Pitcher, my friend, was killed at his battle station on the U. S. S. West Virginia. I was told by chief yeoman Ed Palmer (Des Moines, Iowa) of this ship that the number two turret received a direct hit which killed all men in it. This battleship was the one that I had observed sinking into the water at its mooring, it's masts and upper structures protruding above the water level. The battleships received many torpedo hits.

Sometime after eleven o'clock in the morning, my friend Dick Jesson came into our station with a group of survivors. We were elated to see each other. He was covered with oil and debris. We had opened our clothing supply room, and I took him there and outfitted him with a complete change of clothing. I retained the old doughboy steel helmet that I wore and brought it back later to the States with me. It disappeared many years later from a storage place in my garage in Los Angeles, California. I regretted losing it.

Everyone was on edge during the remainder of the day. Cooks prepared lots of food. We ate, talked, and went outside many times to look again. Ships continued to burn. The heavy one-quarter inch red battleship linoleum was clearly on fire. Black toxic smoke rolled out of them. This killed many men trapped inside.

Sometime late in the morning, the group of men that had gone to fight fire in the drydock area returned to the Receiving Station. Yeoman Bronnenberg was among them but Yeoman Jack Fletcher was missing. Bronnenberg told me that they had gone aboard the battleship U. S. S. Pennsylvania in the drydock to fight fires. Fletcher had sustained flash burns on his face and left arm from an explosion aboard the ship. He was hospitalized. Later, Bronnenberg and Fletcher were advanced one step in rank for meritorious performance of duty.

Physical and mental exhaustion began to take its toll as night came. No one slept until very late into the night. Finally, I fell into my bed.

When I awoke early Monday morning, smoke was still coming from the damaged ships. I walked down to the drydock area. Trucks were unloading dead bodies. They removed one wrapped in a white sheet, and a blackened burned arm swung down from under the sheet. I did not want to see more and left immediately.

World War II was now underway. In November I had sent a written request to the Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington, D. C., to go to the Navy stenography school at the U. S. Naval Training Station in San Diego, California. Stenographic ability was a requirement for advancement to clerical grades higher than yeoman second class which I had attained in just over two years of service. After the Pearl Harbor battle, I felt myself to finally be a mature grown-up man, ready to assume responsibilities of leadership. God had spared my life and I was ready in a more mature way to accept His way for my life. I didn't expect a response to my transfer request because of the commencement of the war, but my transfer orders did come through in late February 1942. I was given a 19-day delay in reporting after arrival in the United States. I finally returned home to Hubbard, Texas, where I received the warmest kind of welcome as the first hometown serviceman to see action in the war.

I learned stenography and was advanced to yeoman first class on August 1, 1942. A year later I became a chief yeoman. Less than two years later I received an appointment as one of the U. S. Navy's youngest warrant officers (Ship's Clerk); age twenty-three. After Pearl Harbor, I served awhile at the Floating Drydock Training Center, Tiburon, California, which is near San Francisco. Then I went to Guam Island in the Pacific for service aboard a large floating drydock, the U. S. S. ABSD-3 (Advanced Base Service Dock). Finally, I served out the war on the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Hornet as a warrant ship's clerk in the captain's office.

I married in June 1943 and my first son was born while I was serving at Guam. He was almost one year old when I saw him for the first time when I came home on leave in August 1945. By strange coincidence, while I was on leave the war ended on August 14, 1945, the day that my 6-year enlistment expired! I was discharged on November 24, 1945.

After Pearl Harbor, I did not maintain communication with my old friend, Dick Jesson, and I never knew what might have happened to him. He was raised in Burbank, California. On July 1, 1947 I became a Los Angeles policeman and worked a patrol shift from 4:00 p.m. to midnight. About 1948 my partner and I worked overtime into the morning shift taking an arrestee to our Lincoln Heights city jail for booking. I went to the booking window and there behind it was my friend Dick Jesson in an LAPD uniform! He had joined the force in 1946 and had been working the morning shift. It really is a small world - all belonging to and under the direction of God according to His plan for our lives.

He graduated from Longview High School and joined the US Army Air Corps in December of 1942. During World War II, he flew C-46 and C-47 cargo planes between India and China across the Burma Hump. After WWII, he stayed in the Reserves and continued flying out of Barksdale

Air Force Base near Bossier City, Louisiana. He was returned to active duty(1951) during the Korean War and flew B-29 bombers for SAC at Barksdale AFB. After the Korean War, he again stayed in the Reserves with short intervals of active duty during the Vietnam War flying C-124 Globemaster cargo planes. Major John D. Meadows retired from the Air Force April 5, 1984. While in flight school, he met Bonnie Orman at a dance in Tulsa, Oklahoma. After corresponding by letter for one year, they married in December 1945 after the war ended. They moved to Longview, Texas and together raised three daughters. With the exception of the time he was in active duty with the U.S. Air Force, he worked at different jobs in the Longview area. He ran a dairy on the family farm, worked as an oil field scout, a machinist, meat inspector and various jobs on the steel roll mill crew for Marathon LeTourneau Co. He retired from Marathon LeTourneau in 1984. After retiring, he enjoyed taking care of his cows and raising a large garden on the family farm. Bonnie passed away in 2005 after 60 years of marriage. He was born 14 Oct 1911 in Gallman, Copiah County MS, and died 24 May 1996 in Elderville, Gregg County TX.

Notes for Robert Garrett Lomax, Jr.:

Robert G. Lomax Jr. died after a lengthy illness on Friday, May 24 at his home in Elderville. He was 84 years old.

Mr. Lomax was born in Gallman, Miss., on Oct. 14, 1911. At age 7, his family relocated to Longview and lived at 1308 Alpine St.

He worked for Kelly Plow Co. for 37 1/2 years and instituted the company's first incentive wage system in 1945. He began as a common laborer and advanced to company president, the position he held when Kelly Plow closed in 1970. In 1972, he accepted a position with the Elderville Water Supply Corp., where he served as manager for 19 years. He retired in 1991 at age 80.

For several years he served as Democratic Party chairman of the Elderville precinct and was active in the Boy Scouts. He was a member of the First Christian Church and the Civitan Club, where he worked diligently to raise money for Longview's first YMCA.

"Mr. Bob," as he was affectionately called by colleagues and friends, will be remembered for his devotion to his family, his humility, and his dedication to hard work, both for Kelly Plow and the Elderville Water Supply Corp.

In gratitude and respect for his years of outstanding service, the Elderville Water Supply Corp. named its new office building the "Lomax Building" in 1994. The facility also bears a plaque in his honor.

Other groups have honored him in recent years, including the New York-based American History Project. Television crews from New York City taped Mr. Lomax relating his experiences of "riding the rails" in pursuit of work during the Great Depression. His interviews will become a permanent part of the Project's National Archives.

He is survived by his wife, Delores Meadows Lomax; four daughters, Del Sebean of Greenville, S. C., Ginger Specian of Shreveport, La., Sondra Lohman and Lucretia Foust of Austin; a sister, June McBee of Dallas; five grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

At his request, no memorial service will be held. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in his name to Centre Presbyterian Church, Route 3, Box 52, Longview, TX 75603.

("The Shreveport Times," 10 July 1993)

A GREAT LADY by Puck

Marianne Gladney D'Artois is a great lady. Nothing less than a great lady. Great by her nobility, great by her elegance; exterior elegance of her clothes, and interior, of her spirit which in truth is the one that matters.

Mrs. D'Artois has undertaken a generous crusade in the United States to teach Spanish to the new generations employing revolutionary methods which she herself has conceived and put into practice with surprising results. For her didactic purposes the meritorious lady made use of the works of the Castilian classicists: she herself is an acknowledged authority of Cervantes and Don Quijote, being the owner of a unique and most interesting collection of engravings which the English artist Hogarth --XVIII Century--made inspiring himself in the immortal work of the 'maimed one.'

At the Universidad Interamericana Mrs. D'Artois made her noble work known. The professors of the institution were in accordance in pointing out that her work is worthy of praise since it contributes to the diffusion of our language transferring besides the knowledge of the best works in Spanish literature.

We have not wanted to let pass inadvertently the beautiful task of this great American lady who has made of intellect and culture the greatest purpose of her life.

Notes for John Patrick D'Artois:

OIL INDUSTRY IN MOURNING

JOHN PATRICK D'ARTOIS PASSES AWAY

Lately considered as advocate of the oil companies in the country.

The Oil Industry of Guatemala has suffered a great loss with the death of Mr. John Patrick D'Artois, Power of Attorney for The Ohio Oil Company, Amerada Oil Company and Continental Oil Company, who are drilling the well in Chinaja, North of Alta Verapaz.

D'Artois was one of the pioneers of the oil activities in Guatemala, as he had begun the necessary exploration work since 1946. Due to opposition at that time he decided to leave the country, afterwards having returned during the Liberation Government, when exploration activities began and finally the drilling operations were started in Chinaja.

During the last years, D'Artois was considered the spokesman of the oil companies in the country due to his knowledge of our laws and customs - he spoke Spanish fluently - and his good standing in the country for he was a Member of the Directorate of the American Club and active Member of the Rotary Club.

John Patrick D'Artois' hometown was Shreveport, Louisiana, United States of America, where he completed his law studies and immediately after graduation started to work with the The Ohio Oil Company, having represented this Company in several Latin American countries where there was the chance of finding oil, even though Guatemala was the country of his choice and of which he was very fond.

It was at the beginning of this week when he was seriously struck by Coronary Thrombosis and Pneumonia, having been interned at the American Hospital of this City, under the care of Dr. Fernando Aldana Lierandi. Nevertheless, last night he rendered his last tribute to life to the sorrow of all those who were fortunate enough to have made his acquaintance and appreciate his honesty and his probity.

This morning the body was embalmed at the General Hospital and taken to the Funeral Parlor on Second Street of Zone 9, between sixth and seventh avenues, where a wake will be held until Monday of next week when it will be carried to Shreveport, Louisiana, by Taca International Airlines, to receive Christian burial in his hometown.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Marianne Gladney D'Artois, who is greatly esteemed in Guatemalan Society, and his children: Mr. And Mrs. James D'Artois, Mr. And Mrs. T. A. Leeper, Mr. And Mrs. T. A. Schmidt and Patrick D'Artois to whom we present our sincere condolence, which we also extend to the companies represented by him in Guatemala.

Notes for Wilmer Carlos Fuller:
WILMER CARLOS FULLER

PhM3/c Wilmer Carlos Fuller of Bremen is expecting to be in the States some time in December. He is stationed at Guam with the Third Medical Battalion of the 3rd Marine Division. He has been overseas 15 months and was in the Battle of Iwo Jima. He was very fortunate, he writes, not to get a scratch.

PhM3/c Fuller entered the service Dec. 19, 1943; took boot training at Bainbridge, MD and Jacksonville, FL. He was sent to Camp LaJeune, NC to train in the Marines and then later to Camp Pendleton, CA. He then went overseas.
(Copied from newspaper article.)

AN ORDINARY AMERICAN HERO: CARLOS FULLER OF CLEM, GEORGIA

by Dr. Mac Martin

"I went where they told me to go and I did what they told me to do," is how Carlos Fuller of Carroll County, Georgia, sums up his military service. "My unit, the 3rd Medical Battalion, was part of the 3rd Marine Division. Our ship was part of the invasion convoy at Iwo Jima. Some medics in the other companies were sent ashore with the Marine Infantry, but none in my company were called on."

Wilmer Carlos Fuller expressed the same feeling as all of the veterans interviewed for this series, "Ordinary Heroes." None feel that the contribution they made was heroic - they were just doing the job they were trained to do.

Fuller was 18 years old living in Clem, Georgia, when he received his draft notice. He was inducted at Fort MacPherson on November 29, 1943, chose the Navy, and started boot camp training at Bainbridge, Maryland, in December. After finishing the eight weeks of boot camp, he was picked to go to Medical Corpsman School. He thinks he was chosen because, before being drafted, he had worked in a drugstore.

"I learned to take care of patients in and out of bed. I could make a bed with square corners, change dressings, take temperatures, draw blood and give shots. This school lasted about six weeks, but I got the feeling that they were rushing us through the course," he said.

Fuller was assigned to Jacksonville Naval Air Station, but was there only a short time. His next assignment was to the Fleet Marines at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina as part of a replacement pool. The Navy supplies medical care and personnel to the Marines, and a corpsman assigned to this duty becomes a Marine as long as he is on that job.

"We were transferred to Camp Pendleton, California in June, 1944. We marched, drilled and attended lectures, but performed no hospital work or patient care," said Fuller. "Once, I had an overnight pass and went into Hollywood, but didn't see any movie stars. We seemed to be just killing time, until one night in August when we were transferred to San Diego. We went aboard a Dutch merchant ship and sailed that afternoon. There were about 1800 Marines on board and we sailed alone until we reached Hawaii.

At Pearl Harbor, we joined a convoy and sailed for the South Pacific. The battle for Guam was in progress at that time and we were designated as the first replacement draft. By the time we arrived at Guam, the island was essentially secured. There was gunfire on various parts of the island, but I never had any contact with the enemy.

"I was issued my first weapon on Guam, a .30 caliber carbine. I was trained to shoot it and take care of it just like a regular Marine. In Europe the medics weren't supposed to be active combat personnel, but in the Pacific the Japanese showed no respect for medical people. They just used the Red Cross as a target to zero in on. Our commanders wanted us to be able to fight for ourselves if necessary."

Fuller was a 3rd Class Petty Officer when he arrived in Guam. He was assigned as a replacement to Company E, 3rd Medical Battalion, 3rd Marine Division. The Marines didn't know where they were going next. This was the latter part of 1944. In February, 1945, they found out they were going to Iwo Jima. To them, at that time, it was just another island.

"We were told that the island had been bombarded from planes and artillery for many days," Fuller said. "For three days before the invasion the bombardment was continuous day and night. It was thought that there couldn't be any resistance left on the island.

"When our ship was on station a short distance off shore for the invasion, most of the Marine combat men and some of the medical personnel were sent ashore. The fighting was much more than had been expected. Casualty rates were much higher than had been planned for. Our troop ship was converted to a makeshift hospital ship.

"When the wounded were brought on board, the medical personnel that had not been sent ashore provided the care for them. I saw horrible injuries - arms and legs blown off and bodies blown open. My job was to attend the operating room and transfer post operative patients to beds in recovery wards we had improvised in other parts of the ship."

Fuller continued, "We stayed at Iwo Jima for several weeks until the island was secured. We were close enough to see the flame throwers, plane attacks, and the explosions of enemy fire on our troops. We were receiving artillery fire and some ships around us were hit but not ours. On ship, we all knew when the flag went up on Mount Suribachi, but there was still a lot of fighting before the island was taken.

"When we left Iwo Jima, we returned to Guam. Nobody talked to us about it, but we knew we were training for invasion of Japan. We stayed on Guam until the atom bombs were dropped and the war ended. We returned to San Diego in December, 1945 and I got a 30 day leave."

After his leave, Fuller was reassigned to Charleston, South Carolina, Naval base as an ambulance driver and, later, to Dublin, Georgia Naval Hospital as a corpsman. He was discharged on May 8, 1946. Using G.I Bill funds, he earned his pharmacy degree from Mercer University.

When he was on leave in 1944, he met Ruth Bowen of Carrollton, Georgia. Her father opened Bowen Road off of Maple Street, and she grew up there. She and Carlos stayed in touch. She had already earned her pharmacy degree from Mercer. They were married October 8, 1949, and have three sons; David, Joseph, and Jon, and a daughter, Nancy Ross. They also have four grandchildren.

Speaking of the Hiroshima-Nagasaki bombings, Fuller said, "I really believe that, without the bomb, I would have died in Japan, along with at least a million other Americans and Japanese."

Notes for Thomas Hoyt Gladney:

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE

In loving memory of my dear husband, Sgt. Thomas Hoyt Gladney, who gave his life July 29, 1944 in helping to keep America free and helping to liberate France.

Hoyt had been in the Army since Oct. 22, 1942, received his training at Camp Atterbury, Indiana and Camp Breckenridge, KY. He spent most of his time in different hospitals, except four and a half months. He was discharged from Billings General Hospital in Indianapolis, Indiana, the first of March after spending 11 1/2 months there and was sent back to his company, and about a month later he was shipped to England. Then around the middle of June he was sent into France, where he gave his precious life. He was wounded in action somewhere in France on July 8 and was sent to a hospital in France for treatment and lived only three weeks.

Sgt. Gladney was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Gladney of Whitesburg GA Route 2. He was born April 24, 1922 and has lived in Carroll County all his life. He received his education at Cross Plains and Clem GA.

March 25, 1942 he married Miss Pauline Boynton of Carrollton GA, then one year, one month and one day later God saw fit to bless our home with a baby girl, Lynette, her daddy only saw her twice before he died.

On Oct. 18, 1942 he united his heart with Christ and was baptized into the Christian Church at Cross Plains, proving to the world he wanted another home that's not made with hands.

POEM:

It seems our troubles are so hard to bear, but with God's help we'll meet you up there.

God needed another angel to complete His throne, that's why he decided to visit my home,

He picked a young flower that was sprinkled with dew, and oh, my dear, it had to be you.

Our days here together were so very few, just seven short months is all I spent with you.

They were filled with fun, laughter and joy, to me you were such a wonderful boy.

Our hearts are sad and our home so blue, in so many different places we can still see you.

Tho our home here below can never be the same, your kind words and smile will always remain.

For three long weeks my mind was in such dread, then the sad news came that my darling was dead.

It's so hard to believe that you'll never come home, but I know you are smiling on that heavenly throne.

Where your dear body lies is unknown to me, in a distant spot far across the sea.

Tho your grave I can never see, it's a sacred spot, for my heart's there with thee.

Only those who have lost are able to tell, the pain of parting without farewell.

It's one of God's mysteries, we'll never know, just why, my darling, you had to go.

There's a vacant place in my life, that no one can fill, but I gave you up, for it was God's will.

Your loving memories help to play a part, in bringing sunshine to my lonely heart.

Gone is the voice I loved to hear, gone is the smile that lingers near.

Gone is the one who meant the world to me and your loving face, I never more shall see.

From this world of pain and sorrow, to a land of peace and rest, God has called you home to heaven, where I know your soul is blessed.

On that great judgement morning, when the dead in Christ shall rise, I am coming there to meet you, and there will be no more goodbyes.

A Loving Wife, Mrs. Hoyt Gladney

Notes for Cindy Heuberger:
In Memory Of
Cindy H. Gladney
April 29, 1954 - January 20, 2015

Cindy H. Gladney passed away in the early morning of Tuesday January 20, 2015 at the age of 60.

Cindy was born on April 29, 1954 in Shelby, Ohio to Pat and the late Ron Heuberger. The family later moved to Warner Robins. It was here where she took root, after graduating from Warner Robins High School in 1972 she married Phil Gladney. Together they had two beautiful children, Stephen and Heather.

Always involved in her community, Cindy started her career at Robins AFB in the Contracting and Supply Directorates. From there she took time away to raise her family before returning to work as a Kindergarten Paraprofessional at Russell Elementary School, where she worked for 19 years. She retired in 2014. But always took great pride in her work – interacting with children and cultivating a community amongst her wonderful co-workers. Perhaps the only thing Cindy took more pride in was her family. Her warmth unending, Cindy cherished her family and was fast to make friends everywhere she went, being sure to snap pictures of it all along the way. She also took great joy in music and was known to attend concerts across Georgia with family and friends.

Cindy will be remembered, cherished, and eternally loved by her husband, Phil Gladney of Warner Robins, children Stephen and Heather, of Atlanta, mother, Pat Heuberger, of Warner Robins, siblings, Debra Stefan (Ed), Cheryl Howell (Ken), Susan Haggarty (Bob), David Heuberger, many nieces and nephews, and her grandpup, Zoe.

Her family will receive friends Friday, January 23, 2015, from 7 to 9 p.m. at McCullough Funeral Home in Warner Robins. Her funeral service will be held Saturday, January 24, 2015, at 2 p.m., at First United Methodist Church in Warner Robins, with her entombment to follow at Magnolia Park. - h.b3lp57Cd.dpu

Marriage Notes for Elizabeth Nowlin and Lawrence Witt:
WITT-NOWLIN VOWS, RINGS EXCHANGED ON FEBRUARY 10

Lieutenant and Mrs. Lawrence Verne Witt, J., having returned from a bridal trip to the Gulf Coast, are at home to friends at 1219 N. 3rd Ave.

The couple will continue to make their home here while she completes requirements for graduation from MSCW and he is stationed at Craig Air Force Base, Selma, Ala. for pilot training. He received his commission from Officers Candidate School in San Antonio on Feb. 5.

The marriage of the Air Force officer and Miss Elizabeth Moody Nowlin was an event of social interest of last Sunday afternoon, February 10.

The sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the ceremony. Dr. Horace Villee officiated. Miss Nowlin was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mervin D. Smith, of San Mateo, Calif.

Vows were said against a background of green palms and ferns posed against four candelabra burning white candles. The couple knelt on a white prie dieu for the benediction prayer.

Lovely Bride

The bride was radiant in an ivory lace and satin wedding gown with a fitted bodice of Alencon lace, Queen Ann collar and long fitted sleeves ending in a point over her finger tips, a full skirt with inserts of lace panels. The gown swept into a chapel train and her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a nylon tulle headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and lilies of the valley and an heirloom handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother.

L. V. Witt served his son as best man, David Witt, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Ushers were Major H. A. Moody, Jr., Shreveport, La. and Columbus, Jennings Cox, Jr. and Jack Marshall.

The brides attendants were Mrs. Jack Marshall, matron of honor, and Miss Kay Fleming, maid of honor. They were dressed identically in yellow taffeta frocks and bell shaped skirts. They wore yellow satin slippers, carried nosegays of yellow roses, and their hats were single yellow roses with yellow veil attached.

Presenting a program of nuptial music was Mrs. Tommie McIntyre, organist, and Miss Linda Hooks, soloist. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. McIntyre played "Traumerei" by Schubert, "Adagio" from Sonato in C Minor, by Guilmant, prior to the entrance of the bridal party; and during the ceremony, "To a Wild Rose." Miss Hooks sang "O Lord Most Holy." The traditional wedding march and recessional were used for processional and recessional.

Mothers Receive

The bride's mother was dressed in a baby blue jersey wool sheath dress with a fitted jacket. Her accessories were black and her corsage was pink Cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a gold brocade sheath with matching printed hat and white accessories. Her corsage was green Cymbidium orchids.

For traveling, the bride wore a gold cotton knit suit, with black straw hat, black patent accessories, and a yellow rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained the guests in the Bateman Memorial Building. Anne Jackson presided at the bride's register. Receiving guests with the bride and groom were the mothers, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Witt, and the bride's attendants.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth. The tiered cake was topped with spun sugar bells atop. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Yellow carnation nosegays encircled the candelabra flanking the confection centerpiece.

Tea girls were Toni and Mauri Lawson, Birmingham, Ala., Cary Gooch, Columbus, and Patsy Huey, El Dorado, Ark. Others assisting in serving were Mary Anne Myers and Mrs. Frank Janous. Elizabeth Jemison furnished reception music.

Each arm of the pergne was filled with a nosegay of yellow and white flowers similar to the ones carried by the attendants at the wedding. White bells with ribbon streamers and lilies-of-the-valley were tied with lovers' knots on the mantle. The buffet covered with white net, featured two white candles.

Notes for James David Gladney:

James David Gladney, born February 21, 1942, died July 8, 2015.

David was born in Arncos, Georgia, to Lois Musick Gladney and Milton Parks Gladney, a direct descendant of Richard Gladney I, who fought for our country's independence from England.

He grew up happily - the apple of his mother's eye. Dave loved playing sports and enjoyed being on the football team of Newnan High School where he graduated in 1960. He married a few years later and had a son. He graduated from Georgia State University and began a career in economic development.

He was a true gentleman of the New South - finding much success despite his humble beginnings. During his career, he rose to become a key economic development player in Georgia, Alabama and in the southeast region with executive positions at the State of Georgia Department of Industry and Trade, the Montgomery Chamber of Commerce, the Metropolitan Development Board of Birmingham, AL, the Southeast Alabama Economic Development Authority, and the Atlanta Regional Commission.

Dave was a true friend to so many throughout his life and beloved by many. He was a man who truly enjoyed having the most fun possible and did so as often as he could. In his last months, it is impossible to count how many traveled from so far to spend time with him after his brain cancer diagnosis. God mercifully took him gently in his sleep.

A special thanks to all the staff and residents of Brookdale Newnan for their loving kindness and patience during his stay there. Gratitude is expressed as well for the tender mercies of Homestead Hospice.

He is survived by his son, James "J." David Gladney Jr.; his son-in-law, Stuart "Bo" Harrod Kersey of Senoia, Georgia; his brother, Milton Donald Gladney; and his sister-in-law, Carol H. Gladney of Talking Rock, Georgia; his aunt, Ruth Musick Jackson of Newnan, GA, her five children – Diane, Connie, Cathy, Carol and Alan – and their spouses, and her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren; as well as many Gladney family cousins including Cathy Gladney Newman and her spouse.

There will be a small service for family. A celebration of his life will be planned for a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his honor to the American Institute for Cancer Research. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com.
