Major Meadows was born April 5, 1924 in Longview, Texas. When he was 16, he paid one dollar to take his first airplane ride at a local airstrip. He graduated from Longview High School and joined the US Army Air Corps in December of 1942. During World War II, he flew C-46 and C-47 cargo planes between India and China across the Burma Hump. After WWII, he stayed in the Reserves and continued flying out of Barksdale Air Force Base near Bossier City, Louisiana. He was returned to active duty(1951) during the Korean War and flew B-29 bombers for SAC at Barksdale AFB. After the Korean War, he again stayed in the Reserves with short intervals of active duty during the Vietnam War flying C-124 Globemaster cargo planes. Major John D. Meadows retired from the Air Force April 5, 1984. While in flight school, he met Bonnie Orman at a dance in Tulsa, Oklahoma. After corresponding by letter for one year, they married in December 1945 after the war ended. They moved to Longview, Texas and together raised three daughters. With the exception of the time he was in active duty with the U.S. Air Force, he worked at different jobs in the Longview area. He ran a dairy on the family farm, worked as an oil field scout, a machinist, meat inspector and various jobs on the steel roll mill crew for Marathon LeTourneau Co. He retired from Marathon LeTourneau in 1984. After retiring, he enjoyed taking care of his cows and raising a large garden on the family farm. Bonnie passed away in 2005 after 60 years of marriage. He then married Mattie Godwin in 2007.

Longview, Gregg County TX.

54. Delores⁷ Meadows (Benetta Inez⁶ Dudley, Mary Catherine⁵ Russell, Crew Cammak⁴, Forigus McDowell³, Thomas², James S.¹) was born 12 Mar 1926 in Longview, Gregg County TX, and died 13 Jun 2013 in Elderville, Gregg County TX. She married Robert Garrett Lomax, Jr. 07 Mar 1948 in Longview, Gregg County TX, son of Robert Lomax and Norma Ainsworth. He was born 14 Oct 1911 in Gallman, Copiah County MS, and died 24 May 1996 in Elderville, Gregg County TX.

Notes for Robert Garrett Lomax, Jr.:

Robert G. Lomax Jr. died after a lengthy illness on Friday, May 24 at his home in Elderville. He was 84 years old.

Mr. Lomax was born in Gallman, Miss., on Oct. 14, 1911. At age 7, his family relocated to Longview and lived at 1308 Alpine St.

He worked for Kelly Plow Co. for 37 1/2 years and instituted the company's first incentive wage system in 1945. He began as a common laborer and advanced to company president, the position he held when Kelly Plow closed in 1970. In 1972, he accepted a position with the Elderville Water Supply Corp., where he served as manager for 19 years. He retired in 1991 at age 80.

For several years he served as Democratic Party chairman of the Elderville precinct and was active in the Boy Scouts. He was a member of the First Christian Church and the Civitan Club, where he worked diligently to raise money for Longview's first YMCA.

"Mr. Bob," as he was affectionately called by colleagues and friends, will be remembered for his devotion to his family, his humility, and his dedication to hard work, both for Kelly Plow and the Elderville Water Supply Corp.

In gratitude and respect for his years of outstanding service, the Elderville Water Supply Corp. named its new office building the "Lomax Building" in 1994. The facility also bears a plaque in his honor.

Other groups have honored him in recent years, including the New York-based American History Project. Television crews from New York City taped Mr. Lomax relating his experiences of "riding the rails" in pursuit of work during the Great Depression. His interviews will become a permanent part of the Project's National Archives.

He is survived by his wife, Delores Meadows Lomax; four daughters, Del Sebean of Greenville, S. C., Ginger Specian of Shreveport, La., Sondra Lohman and Lucretia Foust of Austin; a sister, June McBee of Dallas; five grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

At his request, no memorial service will be held. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in his name to Centre Presbyterian Church, Route 3, Box 52, Longview, TX 75603.
