

Descendants of Nancy Isabelle Gladney

Generation No. 1

1. Nancy Isabelle⁸ Gladney (Thomas (Jefferson?)⁷, James⁶, Thomas⁵, Samuel⁴, Richard³, William², Richard¹) was born 25 Apr 1857 in Red Acre, near Sessums, Oktibbeha County MS, and died 1910. She married James David McCann 1878, son of John McCann and Zilly Roberts. He was born 1852, and died 1922.

Notes for Nancy Isabelle Gladney:

Born at "Red Acre," home of Thomas J. Gladney. Attended a Female Institute at Verona MS. One nephew said that he thought he was going to heaven when he went to visit Aunt Belle. Mama was very kind to the Indians who lived in the community and ministered to them during their illnesses. She made her children call the old darkies "Uncle" and "Aunt" out of respect for their age. She sewed for the negroes and made wedding cakes for some of them because I remember going to one of the negro weddings. Mama would take some of the children, together with beddings and food, to Winston Springs in Winston County every year for their health. This seemed to be a sort of resort of its day and many families went there. There was a main dwelling and then cabins and tents where the people stayed. This was all before my day but I wish that I did know all of the particulars. I think that it was during one of these vacations that one of my little sisters died. Mama and Papa lost three little girls who were all born several years before I came into this world. Their names were: Maude Lorraine (Tee-Tee), Anna Belle and Lula Hamilton. (Copied from a letter from Margaret McCann Holland.)

When she married James D. McCann in 1878 she was twenty-one years old. She wore her hair in seventy-two curls for her wedding, in the coiffure of the times. They lived in the Oktoc Community and were members of the old Vernon Presbyterian Church (Seceder).

Marriage Notes for Elizabeth Nowlin and Lawrence Witt:
WITT-NOWLIN VOWS, RINGS EXCHANGED ON FEBRUARY 10

Lieutenant and Mrs. Lawrence Verne Witt, J., having returned from a bridal trip to the Gulf Coast, are at home to friends at 1219 N. 3rd Ave.

The couple will continue to make their home here while she completes requirements for graduation from MSCW and he is stationed at Craig Air Force Base, Selma, Ala. for pilot training. He received his commission from Officers Candidate School in San Antonio on Feb. 5.

The marriage of the Air Force officer and Miss Elizabeth Moody Nowlin was an event of social interest of last Sunday afternoon, February 10.

The sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the ceremony. Dr. Horace Villee officiated. Miss Nowlin was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mervin D. Smith, of San Mateo, Calif.

Vows were said against a background of green palms and ferns posed against four candelabra burning white candles. The couple knelt on a white prie dieu for the benediction prayer.

Lovely Bride

The bride was radiant in an ivory lace and satin wedding gown with a fitted bodice of Alencon lace, Queen Ann collar and long fitted sleeves ending in a point over her finger tips, a full skirt with inserts of lace panels. The gown swept into a chapel train and her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a nylon tulle headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and lilies of the valley and an heirloom handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother.

L. V. Witt served his son as best man, David Witt, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Ushers were Major H. A. Moody, Jr., Shreveport, La. and Columbus, Jennings Cox, Jr. and Jack Marshall.

The brides attendants were Mrs. Jack Marshall, matron of honor, and Miss Kay Fleming, maid of honor. They were dressed identically in yellow taffeta frocks and bell shaped skirts. They wore yellow satin slippers, carried nosegays of yellow roses, and their hats were single yellow roses with yellow veil attached.

Presenting a program of nuptial music was Mrs. Tommie McIntyre, organist, and Miss Linda Hooks, soloist. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. McIntyre played "Traumerei" by Schubert, "Adagio" from Sonato in C Minor, by Guilman, prior to the entrance of the bridal party; and during the ceremony, "To a Wild Rose." Miss Hooks sang "O Lord Most Holy." The traditional wedding march and recessional were used for processional and recessional.

Mothers Receive

The bride's mother was dressed in a baby blue jersey wool sheath dress with a fitted jacket. Her accessories were black and her corsage was pink Cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a gold brocade sheath with matching printed hat and white accessories. Her corsage was green Cymbidium orchids.

For traveling, the bride wore a gold cotton knit suit, with black straw hat, black patent accessories, and a yellow rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained the guests in the Bateman Memorial Building. Anne Jackson presided at the bride's register. Receiving guests with the bride and groom were the mothers, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Witt, and the bride's attendants.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth. The tiered cake was topped with spun sugar bells atop. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Yellow carnation nosegays encircled the candelabra flanking the confection centerpiece.

Tea girls were Toni and Mauri Lawson, Birmingham, Ala., Cary Gooch, Columbus, and Patsy Huey, El Dorado, Ark. Others assisting in serving were Mary Anne Myers and Mrs. Frank Janous. Elizabeth Jemison furnished reception music.

Many Out-of-Towners

Out-of-town guests not previously mentioned included: The groom's grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Witt, of Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holland, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Amory; Miss Jamie Harrington and Albert Gooch, Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. James Cary Moody, Pensacola, Fla.; Major and Mrs. Ted Saddler, Anniston, Ala.; Miss Frances Moody, Meridian; Miss Dottsie Carpenter, Starkville; Mrs. Jesse Oakstreet, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wheat, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Williamson, Decatur, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webb and child, Decatur; Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Laurel.

Rehearsal Supper

A beautiful rehearsal supper given on Saturday night by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Witt, Sr. in the Camelia Room of the Holiday Inn.

The center table of the U shape was decorated with yellow carnations and white stock. Silver candelabra with yellow candles flanked the exquisite candelabra and yellow carnations in their cups.

Guests included: the bride and groom, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Smith, and Miss Kay Fleming, David Witt, Mr. and Mrs. James Kovach, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Cox, Major and Mrs. Holloman Moody, Dr. and Mrs. Horace Ville, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie McIntyre, Linda Hooks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall, Tommy Howard and the host couple.

Bridesmaids Luncheon

Saturday in the home of Mrs. Powell Fleming, a bridesmaids' luncheon marked the end of a round of bridal showers and parties of Miss Beth Nowlin.

A silver epergne flanked by candelabra was topped with a miniature bride and groom "floating" on a cloud of fluffy white net. Each arm of the pergne was filled with a nosegay of yellow and white flowers similar to the ones carried by the attendants at the wedding. White bells with ribbon streamers and lilies-of-the-valley were tied with lovers' knots on the mantle. The buffet covered with white net, featured two white candles.

The bride-elect was lovely in a turquoise cotton knit suit with box jacket, worn with black accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Following a champagne toast to the bride-elect, the guests gathered in the dining room for a supper of chicken-almondine, broccoli, rice casserole, cranberry salad and cherry cream cheese pie.

The guests included the honoree, Miss Kay Fleming, Mrs. Patsy Marshall, Mrs. Carl McLean, Mrs. L. V. Smith, Mrs. M. D. Smith, Mrs. Milton Martin, Mrs. Ted Sadler of Ft. McClellan, Ala., and Miss Linda Fleming.
