He married (1) Hulda Ann Harper 08 Nov 1865 in Drew County AR, daughter of Thomas Harper and Sarah Walker. She was born 14 Dec 1842 in MS, and died 30 Jun 1885. Notes for Samuel Bruce Gibson:

CSA Co. I 1st (Feagan-Colquitt) Inf AR Reg Pvt
War Between the States--Shot in leg, Chickamauga.

Enrolled for active duty at Monticello on 8 May 1861.
Mustered into the Army of the Confederacy at Lynchburg Virginia on 19 May 1861 as Pvt Samuel Bruce Gibson. Captain Jackson's Company "I" (Feagan's-Colquitt's) Arkansas Volunteers- First Regiment in May and June of 1861, Saline County was stirring with activity. While a lot of the men were busy enlisting and drilling in the various military companies which were being formed, one company under Captain James F. Fagan had already left and was in Virginia as the First Arkansas Infantry Regiment. A Civil War document states, "an Arkansas unit is in Lynchburg armed and ready for action." Samuel Bruce and his Company were engaged in many of the bloody battles of the war. One document says Col. Fagain's regiment was encamped at Camp Jackson, upon the Potomac Coast, near Chopawamsic, to advance to Aquia Creek Batteries Virginia (important to the protection of Manassas Junction). On Wednesday the 18th of July two regiments including the 1st Arkansas was encamped near Brentsville, being on the offensive they were charged with the defense of Union Mills. They rested on Saturday. Another document states "along the Warrenton turnpike road to Bull Run- the first Ark Reg is near Camp Wigfall (along the stream to) Longstreet's position." He escaped injury until 1 July 1863 & 20 September 1863 at the Battle of Chickamauga (shot through the right knee). He was sent to the hospital; military records at the National Archives Wash. D. C. verify this. He was on furlow to South Carolina (no city or camp listed). In a letter from his Reep cousin, it states Samuel was furlowed to South Carolina and was in Fairfield County. He had visited the Jackson Creek Property of the Gladneys. His uncles William McMilling and Richard Jackson Gladney were in Mobile Alabama in the CSA Army, but he visited with their families. The same cousin related that he had seen the son of Mary Gladney Mills, S. (Samuel?) Jackson Mills, during a battle. Mary & Samuel Mills had moved to Obion Tennessee. After duty as a train guard in Atlanta he was released from active field duty 23 April 1865. He returned to his mother Jane's place in Clear Creek Township Arkansas for 7 months before marrying Hulda Harper on 8 November 1865 in Cleveland County and establishing his home in Hurricane Township, Bradley County (now Cleveland County).

Notes for Paula Virginia Thomasson:
AGRI, TRAVEL ARE THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

It's a long way from the cotton fields on the T. J. Bolen farm at Sherrill to a seat on Air Force One.

So far, these appear to be among the extremes in the life of Paula Thomasson.

Miss Thomasson is a special assistant for internal affairs for the federal Agriculture Department, detailed to the White House from time to time for special travel assignments.

Now a Washington D.C. resident, Miss Thomasson is the daughter of W. J. and Betty Thomasson of Pine Bluff. During a recent visit here with her parents, she recalled some of her experiences.

During her special assignments, she is one of several people -- many volunteers -- who take the responsibility of planning and excuting -- down to the minutest detail -- that President and Mrs. Bill Clinton are where they should be, when they should be.

"Our job is to protect him and his time," Miss Thomasson said of her duties as a scheduler for Clinton and formerly for the First Lady, Hillary Rodham Clinton.

It's not a rocket science, but a thought process that involves common sense, she said. "You know how the Clintons would want something to occur."

She knows the president well, Miss Thomasson said. She is very much aware that he is a "people person" so she provides the time for him to "work a room or rope line," speaking to and touching as many people as possible.

A lot of times, some of the trip planners will go to the countries to meet with the embassy staffs and look at sites, then come back and determine the schedule and put the trip together. When the time comes, the advance team goes and puts the plan in motion.

The police and drivers are always thanked by the President and First Lady, Miss Thomasson said. They make a point of thanking all who make the visit a success.

After a trip, Miss Thomasson said, she writes lots and lots of thank-you notes. When Annette Bain had The Personal Touch at Pine Bluff, Miss Thomasson said that she was one of her best customers, because when she came home she always bought lots of stationery.

The President and First Lady also send a lot of thank-you notes. "Thank-you notes are a top priority," Miss Thomasson said.

The trip -- Nov. 28 through Dec. 3 -- was the best yet, she said. It included stops in the United Kingdom, Ireland, Germany and Spain.

While in Germany, the President and First Lady were at the Baumholder Army Base, where the President had lunch with and addressed 3,000 troops. This was right before American troops were sent to Bosnia. Clinton also did his weekly radio address from the base.

Before this trip, Miss Thomasson was detailed full-time to the White House for six weeks. Her responsibility was for Germany and Spain, which was an economic summit.

En route to Germany, the motorcade left the hotel at Dublin at 6:45 a.m. She completed the written part of her duties at 5:50 a.m. She had kept two copy machines and some assistants working all night.

The information in the trip books include the schedule down to the minute and who rides where, along with scenarios for each event. Making sure that the schedule is followed is the charge of the trip director and the lead advance person.

Miss Thomasson was detailed to the White House for two weeks before Mrs. Clinton's trip to the Fourth World Conference on Women at Beijing, China, in September.

Planning a foreign trip can take months, but the trip to Beijing was a last-minute decision, Miss Thomasson said. Whatever length of time is available for making arrangements, the planners try to eliminate all the surprises.

When Mrs. Clinton gave her speech on the floor of the conference, "I was so proud of her. There were tears in my eyes."

The next day, Mrs. Clinton was scheduled to speak at the Non-Governmental Organization Forum at Hairou, China. She was going to speak outdoors, but it was raining and the event had to be moved indoors to a room about the size of the Pine Bluff High School Cafeteria with a balcony. It would accommodate about 1,500 people, Miss Thomasson said.

When Mrs. Clinton spoke, "we all had tears in our eyes for the second day in a row."

After this day, which, Miss Thomasson said, almost defies description with difficulties on almost every side, Mrs. Clinton treated her staff and 14 members of the White House press corps to a traditional Chinese dinner at Beijing.

Every trip is memorable, Miss Thomasson said, but from an humanitarian aspect, the trip last year to Asia with Mrs. Clinton and her daughter, Chelsea, was the best.

Miss Thomasson has also had responsibilities for trips to the former Soviet Union, South America, Japan, Korea, Indonesia and Canada.

Agriculture has always been of interest to her, Miss Thomasson said. For two summers, while she was in college, she worked as a cotton scout for Bolin at Sherrill. This led to her working on the farm bill with Pryor and becoming the junior agricultural aide for Bumpers.

Working with agriculture and her detail assignments to the White House for travel provide her with the best of both worlds, Miss Thomasson said.

In her job at the Agriculture Department, which she has had since 1993, she is involved with promoting American agricultural exports.

When she travels, she said that she tries to talk to agricultural attache's and see what's on the shelves at the grocery stores. The important things, she said, is "you are preserving American agriculture."

She learned a lot about agriculture from her father who is a tree farmer and spent part of the week during her recent visit walking through the woods with him.

She also gained knowledge about agriculture from Bolin, and the money that she made from cotton scouting paid for her time at Cambridge (England) University.

And, she said, she hopes to continue learning.

During her junior year in college, she wrote a paper on the cultural impact of cotton on the Arkansas Delta.

Her value system was established early and, she said, she believes agriculture played an important part.

She also credits two Pine Bluff High School teachers, Wade Hall and Mary Morgan, as being major influences. When she's home and it can be scheduled, she speaks to Hall's classes -- proving to students that "Yes, there is a life beyond Pine Bluff High School."

Miss Thomasson's family also has a house and farm at Pansy (Cleveland County). She is a 1986 graduate of Pine Bluff High School and received a bachelor of arts degree in journalism from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. She completed a minor in political science at Cambridge through the university at Fayetteville.

She graduated from college in 1990 and went to Washington as a summer intern to work on the farm bill in the office of Sen. David Pryor, Democrat of Little Rock. She said that she had every intention of coming home in the fall to attend law school.

She put that plan on hold when a full-time position in the office of Sen. Dale Bumpers, Democrat of Charleston, became available. She was on Bumpers' staff for two years until July 1992, and then she worked briefly for the Democratic Senatorial Committee.

After the National Democratic Convention at New York, Miss Thomasson went to work with the Clinton presidential campaign, doing advance work for Mrs. Clinton, and then working at Little Rock through the transition.

Traditionally the First Lady does a ball and luncheon as part of the inaugural activities. But Mrs. Clinton wanted to do a salute to children's show, which involved the likes of Kermit the Frog for two performances at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts at Washington. Miss Thomasson was the deputy event coordinator for this activity.

Politics were not new to Miss Thomasson. As a volunteer, before the convention, she had worked in the Clinton campaign in New Hampshire, Chicago, New York and Maryland.

The situation in 1992 was that there was a lot of momentum for Clinton, Miss Thomasson said, but who knew -- a governor from a small Southern state?

On a state level, while in college, Miss Thomasson had been hammering signs up and down the "pig trail" (state Highway 23) as a member of the College Democrats.

Miss Thomasson is a cousin of Patsy Thomasson of Rison, who is the deputy director of presidential personnel and a longtime political associate of Clinton's.

Paula Thomasson and Patsy Thomasson were born 20 years and one day apart. Paula Thomasson celebrated her 28th birthday while she was home for the recent visit with her parents.

Notes for Jay Mack Tooke:

Jay Mack Tooke age 94, of Rye, AR passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 10, 2021, at his home.

He was born in Rye on March 8, 1927 to the late Chester and Nova Alice Blankenship Tooke and lived out his life there.

He was a descendent of the early settlers of Cleveland County including Thomas Grafton & Sarah Ann Harper and Samuel Harrison & Harriett Perry Blankenship and Jane Gladney Gibson (husband Silas died in South Carolina). These families all came to Arkansas from South Carolina by covered wagon before the Civil War.

He began school at the age of 4 at the Pine Knot school where he walked to school with his sister, transferring to Woodlawn High School in the 8th grade and graduating circa 1944. He reminisced that they thought he would be behind in fractions, but he didn't seem to be.

He was drafted into the US Army in 1951, serving his country as a Corporal during the Korean War in 1951-1952. He received an honorable discharge from the Army and upon his return home, Jay Mack spent his life as a farmer growing cattle, tomatoes, timber and raising a garden as long as he was able. He was a frugal man and lived his life being as self-sufficient as possible.

His Mother often told that he was given the choice of going to college or buying a tractor after high school, and he chose the tractor.

He was a long-time member of Union United Methodist Church, a board member for the Cleveland County Farm Bureau, the L'Aigle Creek Conservation Board, the Bradley County Co-op board, and a member of the Cleveland County Cattlemen's association for many years.

He was the last surviving Korean War veteran in Cleveland County, Arkansas.

Jay Mack married Betty Shelby on February 6, 1954, and they were married for 66 years until her death in December 2020.

He was also preceded in death by his siblings, a sister, Eloise Tooke Williams and two brothers, Thomas Harper Tooke, and Billy Hunt Tooke.

Surviving him are his sons Jimmy (Paula) Tooke of Monticello, Johnny (Janie) Tooke and Jerry Tooke, all of Rye; daughter Brenda Reynolds of Rye; six grandchildren, Brian (Meghan) of Clarksdale, MS, Josh (Becca) Tooke of Warren, Diana (TJ) Hill of Camden, Jason Tooke of Camden, Derick (Heather) Reynolds of Rye, and Johnna Tooke of Dallas, TX; and seven great-grandchildren Nick Tooke, John & Jake & Jude Hill, Justin Mack & Daniel Reynolds, and Jeb Tooke.

Funeral services were held on the side carport of Union United Methodist Church at Rye on Wednesday, October 13th at 10:00AM with Bro. Charles Woolley officiating.

Military graveside followed the service.

Active Pallbearers were Brian Tooke, Josh Tooke, Diana Hill, T.J. Hill, Derick Reynolds, Jason Tooke, and Johnna Tooke. Honorary pallbearers are members of the Cleveland County Farm Bureau and the Cleveland County Cattlemen's association.

In lieu of flowers, please send memorials to Arkansas Hospice, Union Church, or the charity of your choice.

The family would like to thank Arkansas Hospice for being 'Jesus in skin', providing support in every way possible to ensure the comfort of our Daddy, and to his caregivers for the loving care that allowed him to live out his days at home. Online guestbook www.frazerfuneralhome.com

Notes for Betty Shelby:

Betty Shelby Tooke age 87, of Rye, AR passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 20, 2020 at her home with family members by her side.

She valiantly fought a 15-year battle with Parkinson's Disease.

She was born on October 20, 1933 in Cornerville, AR to the late James Luther and Lennie Powers Shelby.

She was a graduate of the Woodlawn High School class of 1951. She had a brief career as a telephone operator for Southwestern Bell until her marriage to Jay Mack Tooke on February 6, 1954. She was Jay Mack's right hand, working alongside him checking cows, in the tomato fields, was an exemplary tomato packer and efficiently managed the farm recordkeeping and finances until her early 80's.

Betty was a homemaker enjoying food preservation, cooking for her family and her church family, sewing & quilting, and greatly loved her church and Bible studies. When Betty could no longer easily get into a vehicle, she would drive to Bible Study in her golf cart and let Jay Mack ride with her for Sunday church services. She was a member of Union United Methodist Church from the beginning of their married life. Her greatest joy was spending time with her beloved grandchildren who claim that she was the best cook in the world and her kitchen was never closed.

She was also preceded in death by her brothers Clarence Shelby and Billy Joe Shelby.

Surviving her other than her husband includes a sister Catherine Mayers of Star City; sons Jimmy (Paula) Tooke of Monticello, Johnny (Janie) Tooke and Jerry Tooke, all of Rye; daughter Brenda Reynolds of Rye; six grandchildren, Brian (Meghan) of Clarksdale, MS, Josh (Becca) Tooke of Warren, Diana (TJ) Hill of Camden, Jason Tooke of Camden, Derick (Heather) Reynolds of Rye, and Johnna Tooke of Dallas, TX; and six great-
