Spring 1998

'97 REUNION WINNSBORO, SC

by Bettye Bond

Meeting at the Fairfield Motel, some of the Gladney Clan began to arrive on Tuesday, July 22nd. Dr. James & Margaret Gladney, Cynthia Gladney Steele, Charles S. Gladney, Gene & Bettye Bond began putting final touches on the Old Gladney Cemetery and the hay barn upon a hill in the meadow of the Jackson Creek Gladney land grant property.

Ed Stevenson had the cemetery mowed and he bushawged the area around the barn to facilitate parking for the picnic.

After dinner on the 23rd, Gene & Bettye proceeded to the Old Rock Church Cemetery, using a weed-eater to clean the graves known to them and to make a path to them from the old Church walls. Vandals had done much destruction to some of the old markers in a wide strip by the old Church. However only a couple of the Gladney descendants' markers were broken. For that we can be thankful.

When Julia & Mike Glenn, and her parents, Gladney and Laura Kerr, arrived Thursday, they took over the weed-eater detail and did a wonderful job clearing the entire front half of the Rock Church Cemetery. Julia & Mike, with the help of Dr. James Gladney, Charles S. Gladney, Gene Bond and equipment borrowed from Robert Malone of Winnsboro, really "ate up some weeds."

FRIDAY:

Finally the "big day" and Gladneys began to arrive from all over the USA. Hugs and "Hello Cousin" was the order of the day. Tim & Jill Johnson had printed name tags for registered guests. Clifton Gladney, Treasurer, was kept busy during check-in time. Eleanor Richardson was busy passing out name tags and before long Polly Gladney, Eleanor Linn and Margaret Gladney pitched in to help.

SATURDAY:

The morning started with breakfast catered by the Lamppost.

9:00 a.m. caravan to Old Rock Church Cemetery.

10:00 a.m. caravan to Gladney Cemetery for dedication of the graves. Members of the 6th North Carolina Revolutionary War Historical Society, Dusty Simmons, Captain, in full uniform, opened the ceremony with the presentation of the colors.

Revolutionary era costumes were worn by Virginia Ivens, Julia Kerr Glenn and Bettye Bond.

Crystal Wellborn-Gregg was master of ceremonies during the dedication. Mrs. E. (Delores) Everet, Pennsylvania State Chairman of Bylaws and Regent of CYMRY Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Colonists, placed the wreath on the grave of Jane Wilson Gladney, as an original land grant recipient after the marker dedication by Bettye Bond of CYMRY Chapter & GIAFA Vice President.

Markers on the graves of Janette Gaston Strong, Jane Strong Gladney and Agnes McCreight Gladney were sponsored by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Gladney Family members who were NSDAR members performed the dedication and placing of the wreaths on the graves.

Mrs. William L. (Bonnie) Glasgow, State Treasurer of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution of South Carolina, Mrs. Perry Ann Renwick, Regent of Thomas Woodward Chapter NSDAR, and Penny Renwick, Senior State President of the South Carolina Society CAR were guests and participated in the program.

Dr. James Frank Gladney, President of the Gladney Family Association, accepted the four markers and wreaths as they were dedicated by the various family members of the NSDAC & NSDAR.

After the dedication ceremony the 6th NC retired the colors and benediction was given by Rev. Henning Andrews.

Visiting, locating graves, headstone rubbings and picture taking were the most important tasks at hand for about an hour.

At about noon we moved up to the hay barn, on a hill just above the cemetery. Wonderful sandwiches were made and delivered to the barn by Terry Rowekamp, owner of "Yummies" in Winnsboro.

'97 Reunion . . .

At 1:30 pm we caravanned to the Red Brick Church.

3:00 -5:00 pm Fairfield County Museum opened their Research Room for Gladney members. Many new family members discovered what older members already knew "the ladies are soooo helpful and there is sooooo much information there.

5:00-7:00 pm, free time.

7:00 pm Family meeting and dinner in banquet room at motel, dinner prepared by the Lamppost. Dr. William Washburn Gladneys' presentation on Celtic emigration was a huge success. The group asked if he could further this line of discussion next year.

SUNDAY:

A Short devotional was conducted by Rev. Henning Andrews, in the parking lot of the Fairfield Motel, before the Family Association said "Good Bye" until 1998.

After breakfast, Dr. James Gladney and Bettye Bond went to the home of Mitt and Ed Stevenson and paid the annual fee for the upkeep of the Gladney Cemetery. At this time Ed asked that the Gladney Family Assoc. take over the care of the cemetery. He has reached the age that it has become a burden and his health will not permit further work. He stated he would finish the last two cuttings for this year. How very fortunate we have been to have had Ed watch over and care for our cemetery all these years. We all thank him very much and will endeavor to continue to maintain it as well as he has.

After several unsuccessful contacts with caretakers, Ed suggested that his son, Buddy, and daughter, Diana, assist Bettye in caring for the cemetery. Details have not been finalized.

Minutes of the Annual Meeting of Gladneys In America 26 July 1998 Winnsboro, SC

The meeting was called to order at 8:05 by President James Gladney.

The Treasurer's Report was given by Clifton Gladney. A Motion to Approve was made by Wally Gladney, seconded by Cecil Gladney.

Cecil Gladney of Cambridge, GA offered tribute to Mildred Arnold, and gave history of formation of association and officers. His wife, Polly, read a letter from Mr. Arnold's daughter, L. Grills, and offered donation sent by Mr. & Mrs. Grills in remembrance of 100th birth year of Mildred Arnold.

Old Business:

Wally Gladney reported that 240 softbound Gladneys In America books were found and in possession of Julia Glenn, Secretary and Wally Gladney of Lexington, VA.

Motion was made by Virginia Ivens to pay Ed Stevenson the annual fee for cemetery maintenance, seconded by Gene Bond.

New Business:

Carolyn Powell proposed that a marker be placed on the grave of Agnes Gladney, wife of immigrant Thomas Gladney, to replace the stones marking her grave. Motion was seconded by C. Wallace Gladney.

Dr. James Gladney requested that the Gladney Association buy a database computer to be installed in the home of database managers, Tim and Jill Johnson. Motion was seconded and passed by members present.

Dr James Gladney proposed that those who have not updated their lineage, do so as we are in the process of preparing Updates and Kinship Report for purchase to members. Prices to be as follows: $15 for Kinship Report; $35 for Update; and $10 for disk copy, prices to include postage. The monies to be sent to Clifton Gladney, Treasurer, for such purchase.

A slate of officers for 1997-99 was presented by Wally Gladney, Motion to accept made by Charles S. Gladney, seconded by Virginia Ivens and passed by members present:

President: Bettye Bond	1 Director: Ben Gladney
Vice President: Larry Ivens	2 Director Eleanor Richardson
Treasurer: Clifton Gladney	3 Director: C. Wallace Gladney, Sr
Secretary: Julia Glenn	Advisory Board: Past Officers
Historian: Wm C. Gladney, Sr.
Database Managers: Tim and Jill Johnson

Dr. James Gladney addressed audience regarding his term as President. As there was no further business for discussion, Dr. James Gladney made Motion to adjourn. Seconded by Bettye Bond. Closing prayer offered by Rev. Henning Andrews.

As the family begins another year, after our reunion, we must reflect upon the past.

All of the past Family Board Members have worked very hard to continue to progress our association, to maintain our cemetery, to continue our reunions, and to reach the growth in "cousins" that we now have. Never has a family been so blessed as we, the Gladneys, in dedication by family members.

We must always be aware that it takes continued hard work to make the family survive and progress, but that above all it is for love; a love of ancestors and love of each other, no matter how distant the "kinship" reports us to be.

Our family was started and continues to be based on our need to know--more of our past, more of our present, more of each other. We must continue to believe we are each blessed and precious in the sight of God, our ancestors, and each other.

I thank each of you for the privilege of serving both as your past Vice President and now as your President. I have enjoyed these past two years, meeting and getting to know wonderful "cousins" such as you. Gene and I have traveled many miles to work, to organize, to visit and have never been disappointed. We traveled many times to Winnsboro checking on the cemetery and reunion details, attended the Georgia reunion in Clem, GA. in September; the Magnolia, AR Memorial Day gathering, and are looking forward to showing off a small portion of our Arkansas in July.

Many thanks go to Dr. James and Margaret Gladney for all their support, serving both as Vice President and President. Thanks to Julia Glenn, Clifton Gladney, William Cody Gladney, Eleanor Richardson, Ben Gladney and Larry Ivens for serving on the Board for the past two years.

A very SPECIAL THANKS to Tim & Jill Johnson for all their work on the database. How can we ever thank them enough. Talk about devotion to their promise! We have a great Update and Kinship because of their dedication.

We will try, in the future, to have the Gladney Gram on-line for those who have asked. My oldest son Rodney has promised to help me set it up. We will, of course, confer with Tim and Julia on this and work through Julia to accomplish this goal.

The one great thing about this Board for 1997-99 is that we are almost all on-line (email) and can keep in touch each and every day or week, as needed. It is so much easier than playing telephone tag or waiting for the postal service.

We, and Ed Stevenson feel that it is time for the Gladneys to assume responsibility for upkeep of our cemetery. Ed has been a faithful and conscientious caretaker and a good friend to our Family. On behalf of the family, I offer him our heartfelt and inadequate thanks.

Bettye Bond-President GIAFA

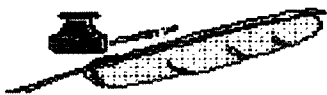

Gladney Home Page

Lots of changes on the Home Page. In addition to the lineage and historical info we started with, it also contains some bright and colorful pictures of the '97 Reunion in Winnsboro. Another recent addition is the CSA, a list of Gladneys who served in the Confederate Army. Coming soon is a DAR Gladney membership. The best of the changes is probably the President's page. It has timely info and newsy items of interest to all members. And don't overlook the Reunions Page which contains info regarding the upcoming '98 Reunion in Pine Bluff, AR.

Julia Glenn, Secretary

The following letter was written to the GLAFA Secretary by one of the members. It contains a meaningful message that we would like to share with all the members.

#5 Brier Patch Lane
Morgantown, WV 26505
11 August 1997

Dear Julie

It was so nice to see you at Winnsboro, SC, along with other Gladney descendants for the 1997 reunion. The meeting was well organized, the accommodations were super, and the fellowship was great.

We enjoyed seeing folks we met from the beginning of the GIA group, and were delighted meeting the new ones coming for the first time to see what this is all about. It is difficult to explain to someone else the excitement of meeting with folks you see but once a year, talking about ancestors long gone, traveling hundreds of miles to do this. They just have to experience this to "Catch the Magic".

It was exciting to view again the burial ground of the original family, to see the remaining walls of the Old Lebanon Presbyterian Church, to have a picnic lunch on the original farm land of the first Gladneys in America.

The saga continues with the second generation's adventuresome movement to westward, southern, and northern regions of this new land. The "Magic" is the love of freedom, the establishment of homes and new families, and pursuing various trades and professions, making contributions to communities in many forms. Undergirded by an unshakable faith in God, our forefathers had the strength and the wills to accomplish great things for our country and for our citizens.

It is with pride and gratitude that we learn more about Gladney pioneers, whether of yesteryear or of later years, as we meet yearly for renewal of friendships. As we reflect on their lives, we determine to honor this proud family name through our daily walks of life.

Thank you for your wonderful contribution as Secretary of Gladneys In America. See you in Arkansas in 1998, Lord willing.

Love,

Maudine Carney

Dear Gladney Cousins:

As most of you know, at the Winnsboro business meeting, the Family voted to receive donations for a computer for Tim Johnson (our database manager) to further the posting of our Family Tree Maker database.

Tim & Jill have been so diligent these past two years in their pursuit of covering all materials possible in the database. They have done a marvelous job, with many, many hundreds of hours, giving freely to the Family Association of their time and energy.

While in Winnsboro (July '97), we voted to place a computer at their disposal for the continuation of this work. After months of diligent research, a computer system has been purchased for $1,298.97. All that remains to conclude this transaction is your support to this project. I therefore ask you to submit a donation to our treasurer whose address is listed below. Please earmark your donation as The Computer Project.

Thank you for your continued support to your family organization.

Bettye Bond--President (1997-99)
Gladneys In America Family Association.

Introduction to Dr. Dru Gladney

Dru C. Gladney is Professor of Asian Studies at the University of Hawaii in the School of Hawaiian, Asian, and Pacific Studies (SHAPS). He is also serving in a joint appointment as a Senior Research Fellow at the East-West Center. A PhD in Social Anthropology from the University of Washington, Seattle, in 1987, Dr. Gladney has twice held Fulbright Research Scholar fellowships, in Turkey (1992-93) and China (1983-84). Prior to his association with University of Hawaii, he served as Assistant Professor of Anthropology at the University of Southern California. He has held post-doctoral fellowships from the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, and Harvard University, Center for International Affairs. He has conducted over 3 years of field research in China, as well as more recent projects in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzia, and Turkey. In China, several months of extensive research and residence have been conducted in Beijing, Xinjiang, Gansu, Fujian, Yunnan, and Tibet.

Dr. Gladney conducts research on ethnic and cultural nationalism, focusing on issues of identity, economy, nation-state formation, transnationalism, representation, and religion. Regions of expertise include China, Central Asia, and Turkey. He has served as a consultant to the World Bank, UNESCO, the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, the Smithsonian Institution, and the National Academy of Sciences. Research languages include Mandarin Chinese, Turkish, Uygur, Uzbek, Kazakh, Russian.

He is the author of the award-winning book, Muslim Chinese: Ethnic Nationalism in the People's Republic (Harvard University Press, 1996, 1st edition 1991) as well as three new books in press: Dislocating China: Muslims, Minorities, and Other Sub-Altern Subjects (London, C. Hurst); Ethnic Identity in China: The Making of a Muslim Minority Nationality (Harcourt Brace); and Making Majorities: Composing the Nation in Japan, China, Korea, Malaysia, Fiji, Turkey, and the U.S. (Editor, Stanford University Press). His articles have appeared in The Journal of Asian Studies, Current History, Public Culture, Central Asian Survey, History and Anthropology, The Fletcher Forum of World Affairs, The International Journal of Middle Eastern Studies, and China Exchange News.

Dr. Gladney's recent research has been featured on CNN's "Global View" with Ralph Begleiter, "Business Asia" with Fred Katayama, and in interviews with CNN's Beijing correspondent Rebecca MacKinnon. He has been interviewed and cited in Newsweek, Time Magazine, the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, the International Herald Tribune, the Asian Wall Street Journal, Forbes, National Public Radio, Voice of America, and Hawaii Public Radio, KHON Channel 2, and Channel 4.

Research grants and contract services have awarded by the National Academy of Sciences, the Social Science Research Council, the MacArthur Foundation, Fulbright, UNESCO, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, IREX, Wenner-Gren Foundation, Woodrow Wilson Foundation, Harvard Academy for International and Area Studies, the Mellon Foundation, and the National Endowment for Humanities.

We will be showing a tape at the reunion that features Dr. Gladney in a CNN program that aired April 27. He and his wife will not be able to attend the reunion this year, as Hawaii is too great a distance to travel at this time.
